De Groot, 2005 Bombs are as old as hatred itself But it was the twentieth century one hundred years of incredible scientific progress and terrible war that brought forth the Big One the Bomb humanity's most powerful and destructive invention In The Bomb A Life Gerard DeGroot tells the story of this once unimaginable weapon that at least since 8 16 a.m. on August 6 1945 has haunted our dreams and threatened our existence The Bomb has killed hundreds of thousands outright condemned many more to lingering deaths and made vast tracts of land unfit for life For decades it dominated the psyches of millions becoming a touchstone of popular culture celebrated or decried in mass political movements films songs and books DeGroot traces the life of the Bomb from its birth in turn of the century physics labs of Europe to a childhood in the New Mexico desert of the 1940s from adolescence and early adulthood in Nagasaki and Bikini Australia and Kazakhstan to maturity in test sites and missile silos around the globe His book portrays the Bomb's short but significant existence in all its scope providing us with a portrait of the times and the people from Oppenheimer to Sakharov Stalin to Reagan whose legacy still shapes our world Resources in education, 1991 Ghosts of Archive Verne Harris, 2020-12-21 Ghosts of Archive draws on the discourses of deconstruction intersectionality and archetypal psychology to mount an argument that archive is fundamentally and structurally spectral and that the work of archive is justice Drawing on more than 20 years of the author's research on deconstruction and archive the book posits archive as an essential resource for social justice activism and as a source or location of soul for individuals and communities Through explorations of what Jacques Derrida termed hauntology Harris invites a listening to the call for justice in conceptual spaces that are non disciplinary He argues that archive is both constructed in relation to and beset by ghosts ghosts of the living of the dead and of those not yet born and that attention should be paid to them Establishing a unique nexus between a deconstructive intersectionality and traditions of memory for justice in struggles against oppression from South Africa and elsewhere the book makes a case for a
