Dear George,

It was a pleasure to have you at our Plant Sale Fundraiser on Earth Day.

Our community really appreciated the event and it was only possible because of you. Your efforts helped us raise $16,300. A huge success!

Your idea to partner with local gardeners and have them share their expertise is a big part of what made this event successful.

All the organizing team appreciates the energy and passion you gave to our event.

Thank you so much for sharing your time and ideas.

I look forward to seeing you again and especially at our next event.

With all my gratitude,

Sarah Craigen
Volunteer Manager

Campaign Boot Camp 2.0 Christine Pelosi, 2012-03-05 Christine Pelosi presents leadership lessons from the campaign trail from a diverse array of over forty public figures, lending advice for anyone who wants to run for office, advocate for a cause, or win a public policy issue. This book draws from her leadership boot camps conducted in over thirty American states and in three foreign countries, working with thousands of volunteers and dozens of successful candidates for office, from city council to US congress. Campaign Boot Camp 2.0 is basic training for future leaders who hear a call to service, a voice of conscience that springs from their vision, ideas, and values, and want to translate that call into positive change. Pelosi outlines the seven essential steps to winning: identify your call to service, define your message, know your community, build your leadership teams, raise the money, connect with people, and mobilize to win. Each chapter concludes with a Get Real exercise so readers can personalize and integrate these ideas into individual efforts. In this edition, Pelosi updates the book's Call to Service profiles of political leaders and their calls to service, details the expanding role of social media, the Internet, and technology as message multipliers, explores challenges unique to women candidates, and expands on the power of volunteers.
