

Dear Mom –

Thank you for all you do for me and our family.

Thank you for picking up my socks, my Legos, my bouncy balls, my crayons, shoes, towels and cars, my books, my crafts, my underwear, my DS games, teddy bears, magic markers, my pajamas, more Legos, my Play Doh, my Squinkies, my hair clips, my slippers and all the things we leave in a path behind us everywhere around the house.

I know you spend a lot of your day just picking up the things we left around between coming home from school and going to bed. I just wanted you to know I appreciate it!

Thanks for cooking for us, it must really take a lot of work to plan meals, to go to the grocery store, to read labels and pick the best foods to keep our bodies healthy. It must take a lot of time and energy to put the food into the cart, out of the cart to pay, into the cart, out of the cart to the car, out of the car into the house, out of the bags and then into the pantry; all before you cook us dinner. Great job! (I'll try not to say, "Eww" or "Yuck" anymore.)

I know that when you have rules and consequences, it's because you love us, thanks for setting limits and disciplining me even though it's no fun for you, even though it's exhausting. It will help me learn and have good character.

Thanks for the years of cleaning up my boogers, my throw up and wiping my hiney. Thanks for teaching me to do those things for myself; and for teaching me to tie my shoes, get dressed on my own and use a real cup with no cover! I really needed you to help me grow up, Mom!

Thank you for teaching me to be organized, to do my homework, clean my room and to practice my instrument. I'm learning to be responsible which helps me feel positive about myself. Thanks for pushing me even when I complain and argue with you.

Thank you for not letting me quit the team when I wanted to. Sticking with it taught me to be a good sport, to follow through, and to persevere. I'll need those skills to succeed in life.

Thank you for believing in me, encouraging me to do my best and to try new things. I love myself and I am proud of myself. I have confidence and I believe in myself because of you. Thank you for supporting my dreams and ideas, even when they seem far-fetched or silly to you. I need to make mistakes and have failures to grow, so thanks for being there when I'm down, and for helping me find my way back up.

Thank you for modeling how to be respectful, kind to others and patient with old people. I am always watching you. I watch you make eye contact when you talk, I watch you bring dinner to a sick friend and I see you taking care of yourself. Even though I don't always LISTEN to you, I do always hear you. I hear how you use good manners, how you listen to a friend, how you laugh with grandma.

I admit, even though I've grumbled, I'm glad you drag us to volunteer to clean up the park or serve dinner to people in need. Because of your example, I understand the importance of service.

Thank you for being there to talk through problems and to ask you questions, any questions. Thanks for answering honestly about kissing and sex; and for explaining all those words I learned on the school bus.
