The Admissible Contents of Experience Katherine Hawley, Fiona Macpherson, 2011-09-07 Which objects and properties are represented in perceptual experience and how are we able to determine this? The papers in this collection address these questions together with other fundamental questions about the nature of perceptual content. The book draws together papers by leading international philosophers of mind including Alex Byrne MIT, Alva Noë University of California Berkeley, Tim Bayne St Catherine's College Oxford, Michael Tye University of Texas at Austin, Richard Price All Souls College Oxford, and Susanna Siegel Harvard University. Essays address the central questions surrounding the content of perceptual experience. Investigates how are we able to determine the admissible contents of experience. Published in association with the journal Philosophical Quarterly.

Introducing the New Sexuality Studies Nancy L. Fischer, Laurel Westbrook, Steven Seidman, 2022-06-07 Introducing the New Sexuality Studies: Original Essays is an innovative reader-friendly collection of essays that introduces the field of sexuality studies to undergraduate students. Examining the social, cultural, and historical dimensions of sexuality, this collection is designed to serve as a comprehensive yet accessible textbook for sexuality courses at the undergraduate level. The fourth edition adds 51 new essays whilst retaining 33 of the most popular essays from previous editions. It features perspectives that are intersectional, transnational, sex-positive, and attentive to historically marginalized groups along multiple axes of inequality including gender, race, class, ability, body size, religious identity, age, and of course, sexuality. Essays explore how a wide variety of social institutions including medicine, religion, the state, and education shape sexual desires, behaviors, and identities. Sources of and empirical research on oppression are discussed along with modes of resistance, activism, and policy change. The fourth edition also adds new user-friendly features for students and instructors. Keywords are italicized and defined, and each chapter concludes with review questions to help students ascertain their comprehension of key points. There is also an online annotated table of contents to help readers identify key ideas and concepts at a glance for each chapter.
