He never spoke of the softer passions save with a gibe and a sneer They were admirable things for the observer excellent for drawing the veil from men s motives and actions But for the trained teasoner to admit such intrusions into his own delicate and finely adjusted temperament was to introduce a distracting factor which might throw a doubt upon all his mental results Grit in a sensitive instrument or a crack in one of his own high power lenses would not be more disturbing than a strong emotion in a nature such as his And yet there was but one woman to him and that woman was the late Irene Adler of dubious and guestionable The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes Madhubun.
