Escapism, Escapology John Limon, 2022-07-14 Escape Escapism Escapology American Novels of the Early Twenty First Century identifies and explores what has emerged as perhaps the central theme of 21st century American fiction the desire to escape from the commodified present from directionless history from moral death at a time of inescapable globalization The driving question is how to find an alternative to the world within the world at a time when utopian and messianic ideals have lost their power to compel belief John Limon traces the American answer to that question in the writings of some of the most important authors of the last two decades Chabon Diaz Foer Eggers Donoghue Groff Ward Saunders and Whitehead among others and finds that it always involves the faux utopian freedom and pseudo messianic salvation of childhood When contemporary novelists feature actual historical escape pervasively from slavery or Nazism it appears in their novels as escape envy or escape nostalgia as if globalization like slavery or Nazism could be escaped in a direction from this place to another Thus the closing of the world frontier inspires a mirror messianism and utopianism that in US novels can only be rendered as a performative momentary chiasmic relationship between precocious kids and their ludic guardians The

Subject of Holocaust Fiction Emily Miller Budick, 2015-05-20 Fictional representations of horrific events run the risk of undercutting efforts to verify historical knowledge and may heighten our ability to respond intellectually and ethically to human experiences of devastation In this captivating study of the epistemological psychological and ethical issues underlying Holocaust fiction Emily Miller Budick examines the subjective experiences of fantasy projection and repression manifested in Holocaust fiction and in the reader s encounter with it Considering works by Cynthia Ozick Art Spiegelman Aharon Appelfeld Michael Chabon and others Budick investigates how the reading subject makes sense of these fictionalized presentations of memory and trauma victims and victimizers
