Short Answer

DIRECTIONS: Use the information in your textbook to write a short answer to each of the following questions.

- Approximately when did the first immigrants to North America begin to arrive, and from where did they come?
They moved into the region from Asia thousands of years ago.
- List the reasons people have immigrated to North America.
Seek political + religious freedom + to find better economic opportunities.
Others fled wars or natural disasters.
- What made the United States and Canada attractive destinations to immigrants?
Rich natural resources + the region's rapid industrial + economic development
(industry and technology)
- Where do most people in the United States and Canada live? ^{Proportion} Canada live along the US border
They live in metropolitan areas (NE, Great Lakes, Pacific Coast) + Burwash
- How did the development of large commercial farms affect the United States?
It caused cities to grow as the use of machines in agriculture gave rise to large commercial farms. Workers moved to the city.
- Describe the differences between a metropolitan area and a megalopolis. Metropolitan: 50,000 people or more
A chain of closely-linked metropolitan areas forms a megalopolis.
- What natural features are important to inland cities?
