The Art of Watching Films with Tutorial CD-ROM Joe Boggs, Dennis Petrie, 2006-12-12 This introduction to film appreciation uses both contemporary and classic movies to help students develop critical skills in the analysis and evaluation of film By suggesting what to look for and how to look for it the text challenges students to sharpen their powers of observation establish habits of perceptive watching and discover complex aspects of film art that will further enhance their enjoyment of watching films In addition it makes the link from literature to film in chapters on Thematic Elements Fictional and Dramatic Elements and a unique chapter on Adaptions

Looseleaf for The Art of Watching Films Joe Boggs, Dennis W. Petrie, 2021-10-19 Never before have movies been so readily available to those who wish to watch them When the first edition of this book was published students viewing opportunities were mostly limited to local theaters classrooms with 16mm projection capabilities or television Since then cable satellite VCRs laserdisc players and DVRs beginning with TiVo have dramatically widened our choice of films to see and ways to see them DVDs and streaming video via the Internet and Wi Fi have offered home viewers both improved visual and sound quality and content extras such as commentaries by directors actors writers editors cinematographers and other filmmakers as well as extended making of documentaries Perhaps most helpfully for the study of film these technologies allow direct digital entry to individual scenes so that we can now scrutinize a film sequence by sequence shot by shot and even frame by frame What are we to make of this greater access to movies What purpose does it serve This textbook is informed by the belief that making films is an art and that watching films is also an art Most students come into an introductory film course having watched plenty of movies but during the semester they develop ways to engage in the experience on a deeper more meaningful level

The Art of Watching Films DENNIS. BOGGS PETRIE (JOE.), Dennis W. Petrie, Joseph M. Boggs, Joe Boggs, 2021-10-21 Informed by the belief that making films is an art and that watching films is also an art With an emphasis on the narrative film it challenges students to take their film experience further by sharpening their powers of observation developing the skills and habits of perceptive watching and discovering complex aspects of film art that they might otherwise overlook This new edition presents an organised framework that can be applied to all movies

Handbook of the Bible and American Popular Culture Dan W. Clanton, Jr., Terry R. Clark, 2020-11-24 The study of the reciprocal relationship between the Bible and popular culture has blossomed in the past few decades and the time seems ripe for a broadly conceived work that assesses the current state of the field offers examples of work in that field and suggests future directions for further study This Handbook includes a wide range of topics organized under several broad themes including biblical characters such as Adam Eve David and Jesus and themes like Creation Hell and Apocalyptic in popular culture the Bible in popular cultural genres for example film comics and Jazz and lived examples such as museums and theme parks The Handbook concludes with a section taking stock of methodologies and the impact of the field on teaching and publishing The Oxford Handbook of the Bible and American Popular Culture represents a major contribution to the field by some of its leading practitioners and will be a key resource for the future development of the study of both the Bible and its role in American popular culture

Judas Iscariot: Damned or Redeemed Carol A. Hebrón, 2016-09-22 At the beginning of the 20th century Judas was characterised in film as the epitome of evil the villainous Jew Film makers cast Judas in this way because this was the Judas that audiences had come to recognize and even expect But in the following three decades film makers as a result of critical biblical study were more circumspect about accepting the alleged historicity of the Gospel accounts Carol A Hebrón examines the figure of Judas across film history to show how the portrayal becomes more nuanced and more significant even to the point where Judas becomes the protagonist with a role in the film equal in importance to that of Jesus Hebrón examines how in these films we begin to see a rehabilitation of the Judas character and a restoration of Judaism Hebrón reveals two distinct theologies rejection and acceptance The Nazi Holocaust and the exposure of the horrors of genocide at the end of World War II influenced how Judaism Jews and Judas were to be portrayed in film Rehabilitating the Judas character and the Jews was necessary and film was deemed an appropriate medium in which to begin that process

The Message Behind the Movie—The Reboot Douglas Beaumont, 2022-04-11 When it comes to movies people of faith often focus on negative assessments of the film industry and certain style elements that they find objectionable such as violence nudity or harsh language While these criticisms are important they are not the whole story A film's message and its method are not always the same thing By discussing the cinematic techniques and the genre considerations filmmakers use to communicate their ideas this book helps Catholics and other Christians to become informed viewers Douglas Beaumont shows how to evaluate the stories that movies tell and how to discern what they say about reality God and what it means to be human At the same time he illustrates how movie watchers can engage in thoughtful lively discussions about not only film but also the big questions in life

Beyond the Subtitle Mark Betz, 2009 Examining European art films of the 1950s and 1960s Mark Betz argues that it is time for film analysis to move beyond prevailing New Wave historiography mired in outdated notions of nationalism and dragged down by decades of auteurist criticism Focusing on the cinemas of France and Italy Betz reveals how the flowering of European art films in the postwar era is inseparable from the complex historical and political frameworks of the time The Message Behind the Movie Douglas M. Beaumont, 2009-05-01 Some Christians denounce nearly every move that Hollywood produces others celebrate even the most morally and artistically questionable While most Christians can agree on the cultural importance of films very few are able to interpret movies with insight and understanding Apologetics professor and film lover Doug Beaumont wants moviegoers to become more informed viewers by better grasping the cinematic techniques and genre considerations that filmmakers use to communicate their central themes He also wades into hot button issues of nudity violence and language in movies helping Christians to more carefully evaluate celluloid depictions of sin Packed with quote and excerpts from many of Hollywood s most successful films and from some of the indie favorites that have gained cult followings TheMessage Behind the Movie is a fun and enlightening look at the art from that defines our age Teaching Motion Design Michael Dooley, Steven Heller, 2010-06-29 How motion design is taught in more than 45 leading programs Detailed syllabi and descriptions of class projects and assignments Go to guide for professors and teachers planning their courses Course plans from School of Visual Arts Ohio State Rochester Institute of Technology many other top schools This definitive study of motion design is essential reading for everyone teaching or studying design Now for the first time authors Steven Heller and Michael Dooley present a comprehensive look at course offerings from more than 45 leading programs devoted to design illustration animation and computer art Taken together they provide a close up look at the principles and practices of 3D computer animation character animation pictorial background illustration motion graphic design interactive media film design and more with class projects and syllabi from many of the most prestigious schools in the country Organized in easy to use sections by year of study this invaluable tool will be every graphic design educator s go to guide Allworth Press an imprint of Skyhorse Publishing publishes a broad range of books on the visual and performing arts with emphasis on the business of art Our titles cover subjects such as graphic design theater branding fine art photography interior design writing acting film how to start careers business and legal forms business practices and more While we don t aspire to publish a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are deeply committed to quality books that help creative professionals succeed and thrive We often publish in areas overlooked by other publishers and welcome the author whose expertise can help our audience of readers Art of Watching Films Kenneth Jurkiewicz, Petrie Boggs, 1999-08-01 Beethoven in America Michael Broyles, 2011-10-27 Examines America s early reception to Beethoven the use of his work and image in American music movies stage works and other forms of popular culture and related topics Dramatic Story Structure Edward J. Cinema-(to)-graphy Ellen Bishop, 1999 Film is simply too big and too influential a mass medium to ignore Surprisingly enough although film is already a staple in many composition classrooms little has been written about its uses leaving many of us uncertain of how to proceed Cinema to Graphy takes you inside some of those classrooms offering new ideas on integrating film and other visual media with student writing Ellen Bishop divides the book into four sections based on where the authors locate themselves in the field of film and writing These essays if anything resist easy categorization all of them begin to unfold both theoretical and practical questions that arise from the conversation about film and writing cultural studies and undergraduate students These instructors offer special insight into both course structures and materials and the methods through which they make use of them Best of all they offer new strategies to help students become critical thinkers who can responsibly speak to and read their media saturated world and who can identify and work with the problems posed by language This anthology will be of great use to university and college teachers of all ranks especially graduate student teachers interested in integrating film into their composition classrooms
