 Laura S. Brown,2023-11-15 The Counterhuman Imaginary proposes that alongside the historical social and institutional structures of human reality that seem to be the sole subject of the literary text an other than human world is everywhere in evidence Laura Brown finds that within eighteenth century British literature the human cultural imaginary can be seen equally as a counterhuman imaginary an alternative realm whose scope and terms exceed human understanding or order Through close readings of works by Daniel Defoe Jonathan Swift and Alexander Pope along with lapdog lyrics circulation narratives that give agency to inanimate objects like coins and carriages and poetry about the Lisbon earthquake of 1755 Brown traces the ways presence and power of the nonhuman weather natural disasters animals even the concept of love not only influence human creativity subjectivity and history but are inseparable from them Traversing literary theory animal studies new materialism ecocriticism and affect theory The Counterhuman Imaginary offers an original repudiation of the centrality of the human to advance an integrative new methodology for reading chaos fluidity force and impossibility in literary culture      The God Biographers Larry Witham,2010-07-01 The God Biographers presents a sweeping narrative of the Western image of God since antiquity following the theme of how the old biography of God has been challenged by a new biography in the twenty first century The new biography has made its case in free will theism process thought evolutionary doctrines relational theology and open theism a story of people ideas and events that is brought up to the present in this engaging narrative Readers will meet the God biographers in the old and new camps On the one side are Job Augustine Boethius Anselm Aquinas and Calvin On the other side is a group that includes the early Unitarian and Wesleyan thinkers the process thinkers Alfred North Whitehead Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Charles Hartshorne and finally a new breed of evangelical philosophers This story looks closely at the cultural and scientific context of each age and how these shaped the images of God In the twenty first century that image is being shaped by new human experiences and the findings of science Today the debate between the old biographers and the new is playing out in the forums of modern theology courtrooms and social movements Larry Witham tells that panoramic story in an engaging narrative for specialists and general readers alike
