

Autobiography of Jesse Stay

BEGINNINGS

I was born on July 20, 1921 in our small brick farm house on the family's eighty acre farm, just west of the Denver Rio Grande and Western rail road tracks, on the Draper-Riverton cross road in Draper, Utah. I was the youngest of twelve children. Mother had four boys, seven girls and then me. I have always been grateful that she didn't stop at eleven.

When I was a year old I moved with my family to a big house on Seventh East in the town of Draper. My earliest memories are about our life in this home. We lived there until I was six years old. I remember herding our cow, "GB," on the side of the road while she grazed. I had a mean billy goat that I had to lead down the road to a patch of willows to graze and I had a horrible time trying to make the goat go where I wanted it to go. I was also given a black lamb to raise. I learned to love the lamb and it would follow-me everywhere. It broke my heart when we sold it to be butchered after it was grown. I got twenty dollars from the lamb, which my parents put in the bank for me. I bought my first suit with this money when I was fourteen years old.

I entered the first grade in the Draper elementary school but only attended this school for a few months before we moved to Salt Lake City to be near my father's work.

We moved to Salt Lake in the winter of 1927 and lived in a house my dad bought from his uncle Thomas Woodbury at 1858 South Fourth East. It was also a big brick house which we needed for our big family. Myla and I were enrolled in the Whittier grade school. Lois and Nina were in high school. Doris was going to the LDS Business College and Mary was in training as a nurse at the LDS Hospital. We lived in Salt Lake City for three years and during this time Carroll came home from his mission and Lorna's Husband, Henry Vandenberg was badly hurt in an automobile accident and they came to live with us with their two little children, Harry and Joyce. They lived with us for eighteen months. Henry was in bed and needed constant care. He had a broken back and was paralyzed from the waist down. He also had a broken arm, and crushed kidneys. Lorna took him back to Michigan to see his father and he died in Michigan.

For many years my father was the Salt Lake County horticulturist. It was his responsibility to control noxious weeds and to promote good agriculture in the county. One of the major activities of our summers was to help him prepare the Salt Lake County agricultural exhibit at the Utah State Fair.

Ivan and Hobert were working in Huntington Park, California and when Mary finished her nurse's training she and Lorna moved to California where they both went to work for the Mission Hospital in Huntington Park.,, Mary as a nurse and Lorna in the Laundry. They rented a house near the hospital and Lorna kept house for Ivan and

Someone Else's Music Alexandra Wilson,2025-07-02 In Britain today opera is routinely called elitist But things were not always so Examining shifting cultural attitudes over the century from 1920 to 2020 Someone Else s Music reveals a hidden history of popular opera going in Britain which defies the opera elitism stereotype At the same time the book traces how when and why that stereotype arose It uses opera as a lens through which to examine the broader history of changing cultural values in the UK from 1920s Reithian ideals about art s civilising qualities to contemporary culture wars The controversies opera has prompted over the last century reveal a great deal about national identity who Britons think they are and who they want to be The book ranges widely across topics including education public broadcasting arts policy and attitudes towards subsidy and traces opera s surprisingly close relationship with popular culture We meet a diverse cast of characters including working class East End opera fans opera singing Welsh miners soldiers discovering opera in wartime Italy and holidaymakers watching it at Butlin s The book is as much about the secretary camping out in the queue for gallery tickets as it is about the duchess in the stalls But at what point did people start calling opera elitist and why Analysing lasting stereotypes around opera Wilson reveals them to be politically motivated founded in deep seated British anxieties about class education and national identity Someone Else s Music is essential reading for anybody who wants to understand the debates we are having today about arts funding accessibility and who opera is for It reveals that opera used to be for everyone and shows us how it could be again

Memory and Autobiography Leonor Arfuch,2020-08-04 This book by one of Latin America s leading cultural theorists examines the place of the subject and the role of biographical and autobiographical genres in contemporary culture Arfuch argues that the on going proliferation of private and intimate stories what she calls the biographical space can be seen as symptomatic of the impersonalizing dynamics of contemporary times Autobiographical genres however harbour an intersubjective dimension The I who speaks wants to be heard by another and the other who listens discovers in autobiography possible points of identification Autobiographical genres including those that border on
