Central American Literatures as World Literature Sophie Esch, 2023-10-05 Challenging the notion that Central American literature is a marginal space within Latin American literary and world literary production this collection positions and discusses Central American literature within the recently revived debates on world literature This groundbreaking volume draws on new scholarship on global transnational postcolonial translational and sociological perspectives on the region s literature expanding and challenging these debates by focusing on the heterogenous literatures of Central America and its diasporas Contributors discuss poems testimonios novels and short stories in relation to center periphery cosmopolitan and Internationalist paradigms Central American Literatures as World Literature explores the multiple ways in which Central American literature goes beyond or against the confines of the nation state especially through the indigenous Black and migrant voices Christian Reading Companion for 50 Classics James P. Stobaugh, James Stobaugh, 2013-01-25 Reading and understanding the classics is important for college preparation as well as for personal enjoyment With the Christian Reading Companion for 50 Classics you can gain a deeper understanding of them from a Christian perspective Selections include books and plays for both middle school and high school levels Global Children's Literature in the College Classroom Sara Austin, Tanja Nathanael, 2023-05-22 Global Children s Literature in the College Classroom explores the importance of children s literature as a pedagogical resource in any college course It can be used to introduce a complex topic give students a glimpse into a specific culture or expand the way students think about education and teaching Global children s literature is particularly useful in language classrooms education programs and classes that discuss globalism and colonialism This book includes fifteen essays representing fifteen countries and eight languages divided into four sections The first section of essays Across the University looks at children s literature in non traditional settings including British literature and multicultural studies which considers what children s literature specifically brings to these courses The second section Borders and Crossings examines how children s literature defines or defies political and cultural separations The third section Childhood Studies and Education considers the importance of global children s literature in education classrooms as a way of promoting diversity and inclusion The fourth section Non English Texts and Texts in Translation focuses on the use of children s literature to teach language and folklore traditions in France Russia and Italy The essay that closes this section discusses using children s literature to teach translation skills at the University of Taipei World Literature, Transnational Cinema, and Global Media Robert Stam, 2019-02-18 With extraordinary transnational and transdisciplinary range World Literature Transnational Cinema and Global Media comprehensively explores the genealogies vocabularies and concepts orienting the fields within literature cinema and media studies Orchestrating a layered conversation between arts disciplines and media Stam argues for their mutual embeddedness and their shared in between territories Rather than merely adding to the existing scholarship the book builds a relational framework through the connectivities within literature cinema music and media that opens up analysis to new categories and concepts while crossing spatial temporal theoretical disciplinary and mediatic borders The book also questions an array of hierarchies literature over cinema source novel over adaptation feature film over documentary erudite over vernacular culture Western modernisms over peripheral modernisms classical over popular music written poetry over sung poetry and so forth The book is structured around the concept of the commons forming a strong thread which links various struggles against enclosures of all kinds with emphasis on natural indigenous cultural creative digital and the transdisciplinary commons World Literature Transnational Cinema and Global Media is ideal to further the theoretical discussion for those undergraduate and graduate departments in cinema studies media studies arts and art history communications journalism and new digital media programs at all levels Suggested Readings for a Course in Children's Literature Corinne Brown,1918 Bibliography Library Economy, 1876-1920 ,1927 A Guide to Curriculum Planning in English Language Arts Ellen L.
