South Africa's water governance hydraulic mission (1912-2008) in a WEF-Nexus context Johann W.N. Tempelhoff, 2018-12-01 Geologists physicists and ecologists currently promote the idea of a post Holocene epoch the Anthropocene As a result of constant innovation and modernisation in the fields of engineering natural science management studies and environmental studies there has been a growing awareness of the intrinsic interaction between humankind and the environment Humankind has become part of the environmental dynamics to the extent that they are literally able to change ecosystems Nowhere is the impact more evident than in the anthropogenic engagement with the hydrosphere from the smallest pool of water to the earth's atmosphere Comprehensive infrastructure development in water and sanitation the growing trend to seek additional resources in the form of groundwater desalinated seawater and recycled wastewater as well as special attention being given to capturing and preserving rainwater bear evidence of a timely response to climate change population growth and rapid development in many water stressed regions of the world The purpose of the book is to provide a historical overview of the manner in which South Africa's water resources have been governed from a time when the Union of South Africa was formed in 1910 up to 2008 a time of a growing global awareness of the potential impact that climate change may have on water resources in a key region of southern Africa notable for increasing levels of aridity and more erratic rainfall patterns This focus on the history of water affairs in South Africa makes it possible for scholars to comprehend the contemporary transitions made in the country's water governance system since the establishment in 2014 of the Department of Water and Sanitation The focus is on the Water Energy Food nexus a strategy which holistically contemplates the governance and use of water from the perspective of the interconnection between water energy and food as resources

Patriots & Parasites Dene

Smuts,2016-11-01 Patriots The great experiment in catharsis that was the Truth and Reconciliation Commission The reinvigoration of racial polarisation under the Mbeki administration and the slow burn of resentment that is coming to a head among the next generation as manifested in the RhodesMustFall campaign The entrenchment of cronyism under Zuma and the fight to protect the crucial balance of accountability enshrined in the freedom of the media and the independence of the judiciary The Social and Political History of Southern Africa's Languages Tomasz Kamusella,Finex

Ndhlovu,2017-11-21 This book is the first to offer an interdisciplinary and comprehensive reference work on the often marginalised languages of southern Africa The authors analyse a range of different concepts and questions including language and sociality social and political history multilingual government and educational policies In doing so they present significant original research ensuring that the work will remain a key reference point for the subject This ambitious and wide ranging edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of southern African languages sociolinguistics history and politics

Seeing into Screens Tessa Dwyer,Claire Perkins,Sean Redmond,Jodi Sita,2018-01-25 Seeing into Screens Eye Tracking and the Moving Image is the first dedicated anthology that explores vision and perception as it materializes as viewers watch screen content While nearly all moving image research either imagines how its audience responds to the screen or focuses upon external responses this collection utilizes the data produced from eye tracking technology to assess seeing and knowing gazing and perceiving The editors divide their collection into the following four sections eye tracking performance which addresses the ways viewers respond to screen genre actor and star auteur and cinematography eye tracking aesthetics which explores the way viewers gaze upon colour light movement and space eye tracking inscription which examines the way the viewer responds to subtitles translation and written information found in the screen world and eye tracking augmentation which examines the role of simulation mediation and technological intervention in the way viewers engage with screen content At a time when the nature of viewing the screen is extending and diversifying across different platforms and exhibitions Seeing into Screens is a timely exploration of how viewers watch the screen

Innovation Africa Olugbenga Adesida,Geci Karuri-Sebina,João Resende-Santos,2016-03-31 This book contains a number of case studies that examine the nature and origins of emerging high end innovation hubs in Africa It analyses highlights and draws lessons from some of the most promising and successful innovation cases in Africa today exploring the key factors driving their successful emergence growth and future prospects Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter,2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions

The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, 2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa s geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future

Students Must Rise Ann Heffernan, Noor Nieftagodien, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-06-01 A detailed account of the incredibly influential Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 The Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 was a decisive moment in the struggle against apartheid It marked the expansion of political activism to a new generation of young activists but beyond that it inscribed the role that young people of subsequent generations could play in their country s future Since that momentous time students have held a special place in the collective imaginary of South African history Drawing on research and writing by leading scholars and prominent activists Students Must Rise takes Soweto 76 as its pivot point but looks at student and youth activism in South Africa more broadly by considering what happened before and beyond the Soweto moment Early chapters assess the impact of the anti pass campaigns of the 1950s of political ideologies like black consciousness as well as of religion and culture in fostering political consciousness and organisation among youth and students in townships and rural areas Later chapters explore the wide reaching impact of June 16th itself for student organisation over the next two decades across the country Two final chapters consider contemporary student based political movements including RhodesMustFall and FeesMustFall and historically root these in the long and rich tradition of student activism in South Africa 2016 marks the 40th anniversary of the 1976 June 16th uprisings This book rethinks the conventional narrative of youth and student activism in South Africa by placing that most famous of moments the 1976 students uprising in Soweto in a deeper historical and geographic context

Winnie and Nelson Jonny Steinberg, 2025-06-10 A NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER THE SUNDAY TIMES LITERARY AWARD WINNER AN LA TIMES BOOK PRIZE FINALIST A WASHINGTON POST AND NEW YORKER 2023 BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR A deeply researched shattering new account of Nelson Mandela s relationship with Winnie Madikizela Mandela that does justice both to the couple s political heroism and to the betrayals and the secrets that hounded their union The New Yorker Drawing on never before seen material Steinberg one of South Africa s foremost nonfiction writers reveals the fractures and stubborn bonds at the heart of a volatile and groundbreaking union a very modern political marriage that played out on the world stage Powerful intimate The Washington Post One of the most celebrated political leaders of a century Nelson Mandela has been written about by many But in one crucial area his life remains largely untold his marriage to Winnie Madikizela Mandela During his years in prison Nelson grew ever more in love with an idealized version of his wife courting her in his letters as if they were young lovers frozen in time But Winnie every bit his political equal found herself increasingly estranged from her jailed husband's politics Behind his back she was trying to orchestrate an armed seizure of power a path he feared would lead to endless civil war Jonny Steinberg tells the tale of this unique marriage its longings its obsessions its deceptions making South African history a page turning political biography Winnie and Nelson is a modern epic in which trauma doesn't affect just the couple at its center but an entire nation It is also a Shakespearean drama in which bonds of love and commitment mingle with timeless questions of revolution such as whether to seek retribution or a negotiated peace Steinberg reveals with power and tender emotional insight how far these forever entwined leaders would go for each other and where they drew the line For in the end both knew theirs was not simply a marriage but a contest to decide how apartheid should be fought

Advances in Best-Worst Method Jafar Rezaei, Matteo Brunelli, Majid Mohammadi, 2021-11-10 This book presents recent advances in the theory and application of the Best Worst Method BWM It includes selected papers from the Second International Workshop on Best Worst Method BWM2021 held in Delft The Netherlands from 10-11 June 2021 and provides valuable insights on why and how to use BWM in a diverse range of applications including health energy supply chain management and engineering The book highlights the use of BWM in different settings including single decision making vs group decision making and complete information vs incomplete and uncertain situations The papers gathered here will benefit academics and practitioners who are involved in multi criteria decision making and decision analysis Climate Change and Air Pollution Rais Akhtar, Cosimo Palagiano, 2017-10-05 This book discusses regional and international climate change air pollution and human health scenarios The research from both industrialized and developing countries focuses on region specific perspectives of climate change impacts on air pollution After analyzing the variations of climate data over recent decades the authors consider the different effects of climate change on air pollution and health As stressed by the IPCC pollen smoke and ozone levels are likely to increase in a warming world affecting the health of residents of major cities Rising temperatures will worsen air quality through a combination of more ozone in cities bigger wild fires and worse pollen outbreaks according to a major UN climate report The report follows the World Health Organization in finding that air pollution is the world's greatest environmental health risk killing 7 million people in 2014 compared to 0.4 million deaths due to malaria Deteriorating air quality will most affect the elderly children people with chronic ill health and expectant mothers Another report suggests that more than 5.5 million people die prematurely each year due to air pollution with over half of those deaths occurring in China and India A study on the air pollution in the USA suggests that more than half of US population lives in areas with potentially dangerous air pollution and about six out of 10 of the top cities for air pollution in the USA are located in the state of California In the face of future climate change scientists have urged stronger emission controls to avoid worsening air pollution and the associated exacerbation of health problems especially in more populated regions of the world It is hoped that the implementation of the Paris Climate Agreement will help minimize air pollution Additionally the authors consider the various measures that different countries and groups of countries like the European Union have adopted to mitigate the problems arising from climate change and to safeguard the health of population The book examines the increasing incidence of diseases largely caused by climate change The countries regions covered in this study include the USA Northern Europe U K Southern Europe Italy Canada Australia East Asia Russia Hong Kong Taiwan Thailand Malaysia Indonesia India South Africa Mexico Brazil Caribbean countries and Argentina
