Christian Drosten

Never Pulling Out Taboo Forbidden Pregnancy English Edition:

National Study of Sexual and Reproductive Knowledge and Behaviour in Papua New Guinea, 1994 The Diloggún Ócha'ni Lele, 2003-07-28 The first book on Santer a s holiest divination system to thoroughly explore each family of odu and how their actions and reactions affect the spiritual development of the client Includes the major considerations for sacrifice providing the diviner with ways to placate and supplicate the Afro Cuban deities known as orishas Demonstrates how to properly end a reading so that negative vibrations are fully removed from the diviner s home Provides a thoroughly detailed description of each of the 12 families of odu that exist in the diloggun from Okana through Ejila Shebora The diloggun is more than a tool of divination It is a powerful transformational process and the forces that are set in motion when it is cast determine the future evolution of the adherent The Diloggun is the first book to explore this Afro Cuban oracle from the perspective of diaspora orisha worship It is also the first book to explore the lore surrounding this mysterious oracle which is the living Bible of one of the world s fastest growing faiths The twelve families of odu that are available to the diviner include 192 omo odu the children of the odu and each of these patterns or letters has its own proverbs meanings prohibitions and sacrifices cha ni Lele provides the secret but essential information that the adept diviner needs to know to ensure that every element affecting a client s spiritual development is taken into consideration during a reading His book is also the first to detail how to properly end a session so that negative vibrations are absorbed by the orishas and fully removed from the diviner s home For those seeking the wisdom of ancient Africa The Diloggun is an indispensable guide to the mysteries of the orishas The Advocate, 2003-08-19 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Autofiction, Emotions, and Humour Alexandra Effe, Arnaud Schmitt, 2022-12-26 Autofiction is often associated with humour irony and play Moreover authors of autofictional texts are frequently criticised for a lack of seriousness or for failing to straightforwardly and in their own voice engage with a given topic Yet very few autofictional texts are exclusively or even primarily playful Many employ humour and irony to address very serious subject matter This volume explores how these seemingly opposed characteristics of autofictional texts in fact work together The contributions in this volume show that autofictional texts often make use of humour and play in a productive and meaningful way tackling issues such as human rights violations historical and collective as well as personal trauma and struggle with psychological or physical illness and abuse On the basis of geographically wide ranging case studies including texts from South America South Africa the United States and Europe this book explores how in which contexts and to which effects autofictional texts reveal their authors complex and often painful psychological experiences and engage the emotions of their readers This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Life Writing The Visible and the Invisible Daniela Hammer-Tugendhat, 2015-03-10 The book addresses the scientific debates on Rembrandt Metsu Vermeer and Hoogstraten

that are currently taking place in art history and cultural studies These focus mainly on the representation of gender difference the relationship between text and image and the emotional discourse They are also an appeal for art history as a form of cultural studies that analyses the semantic potential of art within discursive and social contemporary practices Dutch painting of the seventeenth century reflects its relationship to visible reality It deals with ambiguities and contradictions As an avant garde artistic media it also contributes to the emergence of a subjectivity towards the modern bourgeois It discards subject matter from its traditional fixation with iconology and evokes different imaginations and semantizations aspects that have not been sufficiently taken into account in previous research The book is to be understood as an appeal for art history as a form of cultural science that analyses the semantic potential of art within discursive and social contemporary practices and at the same time demonstrates its relevance today Works by Rembrandt Metsu Vermeer Hoogstraten and others serve as exemplary case studies for addressing current debates in art history and cultural studies such as representation of gender difference relationship between text and image and emotional discourse

Lyrical Bible Gregory Von Lee, 2011-08-31 The author is a hermit A lifetime underachiever A person who learned that you make it in life by hard work smarts and chance Who understands that there are no accidents or luck in life there are only mistakes opportunities and preparation The author does not believe in marriage or relationships because he doesn't want to share 50/50 with no one He only believes in intercourse and the feelings for the moment It doesn't matter how a woman looks That's because the author is more interested in the act and the person than the physical features The author doesn't want his picture in the book because he rather be recognized for his works not his face And he wants you to know in the end where to find happiness It's not in a mate They could leave you one day It's in your babies

Acting for Others Pascale Bonnemère, 2018-05-21 For the Ankave of Papua New Guinea men unlike women do not reach adulthood and become fathers simply by growing up and reproducing What fathers and by extension men actually are is a result of a series of relational transformations operated in and by rituals in which men and women both perform complementary actions in separate spaces Acting for Others is a tour de force in Melanesian ethnography gender studies and theories of ritual Based on years of fieldwork conducted by the author and her husband and co ethnographer this book's double view of the Ankave ritual cycle from women in the village and from the men in the forest is novel provocative and one of the most incisive analyses of the emergence of ideas of gender in Papua New Guinea since Marilyn Strathern's The Gender of the Gift At the heart of Pascale Bonnemère's argument is the idea that it is possible for genders to act for and upon one another and to do so almost paradoxically by limiting action through the obeying of taboos and other restrictions With this first English translation by acclaimed French translator Nora Scott accompanied by a foreword from Marilyn Strathern Acting for Others brings the Ankave ritual world to new theoretical life challenging how we think about mutual action mutual being and mutual life
