Contemporaneous India Sat Sharma,2021-01-26 India is a lumbering elephantine State that cannot be expected to pivot around its heels irrespective of the capability intentions and skills of its present mahout That may explain why it took 67 long years to resurrect prime minister ship by electing for the first time a deserving astute down to earth eminently suited politician who had tasted poverty and hard work and seems to be the one to relate to citizens aspirations and needs He possesses vision and necessary will to transform a fledgling country into a mega economy and world power Narendra Modi as a truly nationalistic politician may be taller than Nehru He became the first ever PM to visit INA Memorial in Singapore And the first Indian in four centuries to inspect a Guard of Honor from the British Army in London However thanks to Congress party s dirty politics he inherited a deeply divisive polity rusted three pillars of democracy muddled with long nurtured anti nationalistic media Modi earned kudos whichever nation he visited His maiden American trip four months after taking over was a raving success hitherto not achieved by any of his predecessors that included three trips each by Nehru and Indira and double that number by Modi s incompetent and ineffectual immediate predecessor a puppet in the hands of his Italy born white Catholic lady boss During the 18 months Modi has been showing promise by undoubtedly raising the stature of the country globally Back home deeply and widely pervading corruption divisiveness illiteracy and lack of nationalism are sinister and life threatening ailments needing drastic cure We are corrupt and therefore elect corrupt politicians The latest is Bihar s humongous mandate on communal lines First time MLA sons of a convicted for corruption politician become ministers the ninth class fail deputy CM and 12th class as health minister Till the time we become dutiful nationalistic and sincere the status quo is not going to change We must educate our masses in general but our youngsters who are the future custodians of the country in particular but not up to the mark in many ways The generations born after independence have to understand the true account value of the hard won freedom and imbibe our civilization and culture Only then the misconceptions on created fictional heroes can be rectified Only then our younger folks can appreciate the importance of their duties to their motherland Our politicians must become Hindustanis first and foremost start working for the benefit of their compatriots rather their own families They must forthwith stop eschew vote bank politics Only when all of us are patriotic enough we can offer a united front against biggest threat to us from terrorism incited and inflicted by Pakistan for decades aided and abetted by so many anti nationalistic political parties who also will have to mend their nasty ways and allow the parliament to function smoothly so that agenda on economic reforms can move forward All of us have to contribute whole heartedly for progress and development Every citizen irrespective of caste creed must exhibit an apparent firm and free will to work towards the betterment of the land We must weed out the mindset where people live here but their loyalty lies elsewhere as dictated by the leaders of their faith No religious law can take priority over the national law There has to be common civil code so that everyone is treated equally The way things stand today we are only going down and down This will continue unless we correct our mindset and course radically Hindus extreme tolerance during last millennium led to rise of intolerant Islam aided and abetted by Congress and its cronies and like minded parties Hindustan has been looted and marauded by foreigners and bled high and dry of its richness and natural resources Alas This loot continued after independence by parties in power Modi has somehow disturbed the looters political thought process by challenging it with their ideology and hence has been declared Intolerable since they see no future if Modi continues the good work for his motherland I do hope that our people wake unitedly to become truly democratically independent nation Our paid purchased and partisan media will have to become neutral non biased and nationalistic If not contained our electronic media left liberals and pseudo seculars will ruin the country The anti nationalistic politicians must shun their derogatory practices of belittling the country in every forum and seriously consider their duty and debt to their motherland as their primary function Otherwise we are not far from our doomsday Thus it is now or never for us Hindustanis to rise and stand erect steadfast

Remembering Lucile Polly E. Bugros McLean, 2018-09-28 In 1918 Lucile Berkeley Buchanan Jones received her bachelor s degree from the University of Colorado becoming its first female African American graduate though she was not allowed to walk at graduation nor is she pictured in the 1918 CU yearbook In Remembering Lucile author Polly McLean depicts the rise of the African American middle class through the historical journey of Lucile and her family from slavery in northern Virginia to life in the American West using their personal story as a lens through which to examine the greater experience of middle class Blacks in the early twentieth century The first born daughter of emancipated slaves Lucile refused to be defined by the racist and sexist climate of her times settling on a career path in teaching that required great courage in the face of pernicious Jim Crow laws Embracing her sister s dream for higher education and W E B Du Bois s ideology she placed education and intelligence at the forefront of her life teaching in places where she could most benefit African American students Over her 105 years she was an eyewitness to spectacular inspiring and tragic moments in American history including horrific lynchings and systemic racism in housing and business opportunities as well as the success of women s suffrage and Black owned businesses and educational institutions Remembering Lucile employs a unique blend of Black feminist historiography and wider discussions of race gender class religion politics and education to illuminate major events in African American history and culture as well as the history of the University of Colorado and its relationship to Black students and alumni as it has evolved from institutional racism to welcoming acceptance This extensive biography paints a vivid picture of a strong extraordinary Black woman who witnessed an extraordinary time in America and rectifies her omission from CU s institutional history The book fills an important gap in the literature of the history of Blacks in the Rocky Mountain region and will be of significance to anyone interested in American history Media Denver Post Daily Camera

Colorado Arts Sciences Magazine      Electric and Hybrid Cars Curtis D. Anderson, Judy Anderson, 2010-03-30 This illustrated history chronicles electric and hybrid cars from the late 19th century to today's fuel cell and plug-in automobiles. It describes the politics, technology, marketing strategies, and environmental issues that have impacted electric and hybrid cars research and development. The important marketing shift from a woman's car to going green is discussed. Milestone projects and technologies such as early batteries, hydrogen, and bio-mass fuel cells, the upsurge of hybrid vehicles, and the various regulations and market forces that have shaped the industry are also covered.      American Nursing Patricia D'Antonio, 2010-07-11 First Place History and Public Policy 2010 American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Awards This new interpretation of the history of nursing in the United States captures the many ways women reframed the most traditional of all gender expectations: that of caring for the sick, to create new possibilities for themselves, to renegotiate the terms of some of their life experiences, and to reshape their own sense of worth and power. For much of modern U.S. history, nursing was informal, often uncompensated, and almost wholly the province of female family and community members. This began to change at the end of the nineteenth century when the prospect of formal training opened for women doors that had been previously closed. Nurses became respected professionals, and becoming a formally trained nurse granted women a range of new social choices and opportunities that eventually translated into economic mobility and stability. Patricia D'Antonio looks closely at this history using a new analytic framework and a rich trove of archival sources and finds complex multiple meanings in the individual choices of women who elected a nursing career. New relationships and social and professional options empowered nurses in constructing consequential lives, supporting their families, and participating both in their communities and in the health care system. Narrating the experiences of nurses, D'Antonio captures the possibilities, power, and problems inherent in the different ways women defined their work and lived their lives. Scholars in the history of medicine, nursing, and public policy, those interested in the intersections of identity, work, gender, education, and race, and nurses will find this a provocative book.      Critical Transnational Feminist Praxis Amanda Lock Swarr, Richa Nagar, 2012-02-01 Provocative, timely, and global, this volume offers a critical and grounded engagement with transnational feminism through the lens of praxis, the juncture of theory and practice. In so doing, it grapples with questions of power and representation while remaining deeply committed to radical critiques and agendas of transnational and postcolonial feminisms. Long-time activists and well-known scholars speak to a wide range of issues and practices, including women's studies, curricula, NGOs, transnational and LGBTQ studies, feminist methodologies, and film. These essays similarly conceptualize ways to more effectively theorize feminist collaborative practices while subverting such rigid established dichotomies as theory/practice, academic/activist, individual/collaborative, and the global North/South. A number of transnational projects are highlighted: the Guyanese Red Thread collective, the Ananya Dance Theater, the Philippine Women Center of British Columbia, the Filipino Canadian Youth Alliance, the VIVA Project, and the Indian organization Sangtin.

Comprehensive in scope and rigorous in critical scrutiny these powerful essays set the twenty first century agenda for political engagement through feminist scholarship The mix of styles makes for a lively read that is accessible for its extraordinary candor its combination of theory with firmly grounded empirical examples and an unflinching confrontation of pain and conflict It made me think about entirely new things and about familiar things in new ways and to make connections among them Louise Fortmann University of California Berkeley Amanda Lock Swarr is Assistant Professor of Women Studies at the University of Washington Seattle Richa Nagar is Professor of Gender Women and Sexuality Studies at the University of Minnesota Twin Cities She is the author with Sangtin writers of Playing with Fire Feminist Thought and Activism through Seven Lives in India
