of representation and control and more One of the most comprehensive volumes of its kind this companion is essential reading for photographers and historians alike History of Soybeans and Soyfoods in the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg (1647-2015) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi, 2015-08-17 The world's most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive index 168 photographs and illustrations mostly color Free of charge in digital PDF format on Google Books Making Images Move Gregory Zinman, 2020-01-03 Making Images Move reveals a new history of cinema by uncovering its connections to other media and art forms In this richly illustrated volume Gregory Zinman explores how moving image artists who worked in experimental film pushed the medium toward abstraction through a number of unconventional filmmaking practices including painting and scratching directly on the film strip deteriorating film with water dirt and bleach and applying materials such as paper and glue This book provides a comprehensive history of this tradition of handmade cinema from the early twentieth century to the present opening up new conversations about the production meaning and significance of the moving image From painted film to kinetic art and from psychedelic light shows to video synthesis Gregory Zinman recovers the range of forms tools and intentions that make up cinema's shadow history deepening awareness of the intersection of art and media in the twentieth century and anticipating what is to come

Being a Mother in a Strange Land Shu-Yi Huang, 2019-05-21 This text provides an alternative narrative to the humble and often exclusively male voices of first generation Chinese migrants Despite Chinese migrants having migrated to the Netherlands since 1911 particularly after World War Two and female migrants outnumbering male migrants their everyday life and transnational motherhood experiences have remained largely unknown Based on the narratives of 38 Chinese migrant women from Taiwan Hong Kong and China this book brings women their lives and opinions to the center of Dutch migration history One-Hit Wonders Sarah Hill, 2022-02-24 The one hit wonder has a long and storied history in popular music exhorting listeners to dance to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony to ponder mortality to get a job to bask in the sunshine or just to get up and dance again Catchy memorable irritating or simply ubiquitous one hit wonders capture something of the mood of a time This collection provides a series of short sharp chapters focusing on one hit wonders from the 1950s to the present day with a view toward understanding both the mechanics of success and the socio musical contexts within which such songs became hits Some artists included here might have aspired to success but only managed one hit while others enjoyed lengthy if unremarkable careers after their initial chart success Put together these chapters provide not only a capsule history of popular music tastes but also ruminations on the changing nature of the music industry and the mechanics of fame Machine Landscapes Liam Young, 2019-03-11 The most significant architectural spaces in the world are now entirely empty of people The data centres telecommunications networks distribution warehouses unmanned ports and industrialised agriculture that define the very nature of who we are today are at the same time places we can never visit Instead they are occupied by server stacks and hard drives logistics bots and mobile shelving units autonomous cranes and container ships robot vacuum cleaners and internet connected toasters driverless tractors and taxis This issue is an atlas of sites architectures and infrastructures that are not built for us but whose form materiality and purpose is configured to anticipate the patterns of machine vision and habitation rather than our own We are said to be living in a new geological epoch the Anthropocene in which humans are the dominant force shaping the planet This collection of spaces however more accurately constitutes an era of the Post Anthropocene a period where it is technology and artificial intelligence that now computes conditions and constructs our world Marking the end of human centred design the issue turns its attention to the new typologies of the post human architecture without people and our endless expanse of Machine Landscapes Contributors Rem Koolhaas Merve Bedir and Jason Hilgefort Benjamin H Bratton Ingrid Burrington Ian Cheng Cathryn Dwyre Chris Perry David Salomon and Kathy Velikov John Gerrard Alice Gorman Adam Harvey Jesse LeCavalier Xingzhe Liu Clare Lyster Geoff Manaugh Tim Maughan Simone C Niquille Jenny Odell Trevor Paglen Ben Roberts Featured interviews Deborah Harrison designer of Microsoft's Cortana and Paul Inglis designer of the urban landscapes of Blade Runner 2049

Student Soldiers Suhario Padmodiwiryo, 2015 Hario Kecik's diary is without peer in Indonesian literature as a portrait of talented and brave young revolutionaries during the first days of the Republic which followed a brutal Japanese occupation and finally led to the November 1945 Battle for Surabaya the longest bloodiest and most decisive warfare in the Republic's history More than one hundred thousand young men and women the majority under twenty years of age took up weapons against the modern British Indian Army and arriving Dutch forces intending to re-establish Dutch colonial rule in the Indies For Indonesian readers no period of Indonesian history will better repay study than the events in Surabaya in the last months of 1945 when the August 17 Proclamation of Independence seemed had become almost a dead letter as the British and Japanese forces combined to put down Merdeka movements in Bandung Bogor Cirebon and Semarang Young readers especially will take courage and marvel at the bravery of school aged boys taking up arms while Indonesian readers in general will finally understand that while August 17 was the date of the Proclamation independence was by no means guaranteed as city after city fell post war to the British Surabaya and Hario's Kecik's generation changed all that

Nothing Is Impossible Ted Osius, 2021-10-15 Ted Osius U S Ambassador to Vietnam from 2014-17 offers a vivid first hand account of the various forms of diplomacy that brought about the reconciliation between two former enemies and helped bring new prosperity to Vietnam With a foreword by former Secretary of State John Kerry Nothing is Impossible tells an inspiring story of how international diplomacy can create a better world
