No Ordinary Exam Doctor S Forbidden Desires:

Hurting for Love Herbert A. Schreier, Judith A. Libow, 1993-05-21 This book offers a comprehensive detailed examination of MBPS Written by leading authorities it covers all known clinical medical psychological social and legal aspects of the disorder including detection dynamics treatment and clinical management Based on their own experiences evaluating and treating these patients the authors present an innovative theory of the disorder as a form of imposturing Detailed psychological test data on a group of MBPS mothers are presented for the first time to enhance our understanding of the cognitive and psychological makeup of parents who fabricate illness in their children The text also contains a thoughtful discussion of the larger social context of women in our society and in our medical institutions a discussion crucial to our understanding of why MBPS is predominantly a disorder of women

Who Killed the Queen? Holly Jewell Dressel, 2008 Who Killed the Queen is the first sustained investigation ever attempted into the mass closures of hospitals and hospital beds in Canada during the mid 1990s showing the effects that the loss of 20 per cent of beds has had on health care across the country It provides very strong evidence as to who and what was responsible for bed losses that are unparalleled in the history of any other industrialized country It also provides well supported templates for saving and strengthening the entire Canadian health care system despite this attack Who Killed the Queen makes its arguments by means of a particularly dramatic and telling case study It investigates the life and death of the exemplary 100 year old Canadian community hospital the Queen Elizabeth of Montreal site of many national and international medical firsts which nonetheless became a typical victim of the mass closures in the mid 1990s
