evolution     No Man's Land C. M. Saunders, 2017-04-09 The Somme Offensive 1916 Harry Doyle is a young overawed British infantryman struggling to come to terms with the insanity of war His main objective is staying alive and getting back home to his family in one piece But his hopes begin to diminish when he realises the full extent of the misery and destruction around him And the German war machine isn't the only thing he has to worry about Something else is preying on his friends and comrades in the trenches picking them off one by one Something no amount of military training can prepare him for Proceeds from this book will be donated to the Help for Heroes foundation This book contains descriptions of graphic violence and is not suitable for minors NO MAN'S LAND is a literate and vivid narrative of an ugly war a war which for Harry Doyle and his fellow soldiers extends beyond the boundaries of consensus reality The Haunted Reading Room     No Man's Land Eric J. Leed, 1979-05-31 Based on the firsthand accounts of German French British and American front line soldiers No Man's Land examines how the first modern industrialized war transformed the character of the men who participated in it Ancient myths about war eroded in the trenches where the relentless monotony and impotence of the soldier's life was interrupted only by unpredictable moments of annihilation Professor Leed looks at how the traumatic experience of combat itself and the wholesale shattering of the conventions and ethical codes of normal social life turned ordinary civilians into liminal men men living beyond the limits of the accepted and the expected He uses the concept of liminality to illuminate the central features of the war experience the separation from home the experience of pollution death comradeship and the uncanny and the ambivalence of returning veterans about civilian society In a final chapter Professor Leed assesses the long term political impact of the front experience He finds that the end of hostilities did not mean the end of the war experience as much as the beginning of a process by which that experience was framed institutionalized celebrated and relived in political action as well as in fiction     No Man's Land Graham Greene, David Lodge, 2005 Mission and return to the West The result is a remarkable psychologically charged exploration of fear and crossed frontiers Author and playwright Graham Greene 1904-91 is best known for his works Brighton Rock The Power and the Glory and The Heart of the Matter     No Man's Land Reginald Hill, 2019-12-17 A particularly compelling novel of brotherhood and brutality among a band of World War I deserters Publishers Weekly A small group of soldiers led by an Australian named Viney has fled the trenches of the Western front Now they scavenge to survive in the desolate area known as no man's land One of them Josh is shaken by the brutality he has witnessed Another Lothar was a German aristocrat who had no desire to die as a supposed hero There are tensions among the group but they are united in their disdain for the war that rages around them and Lothar and Josh share another bond as each has been traumatized by the loss of a brother during the fighting But as the runaway soldiers hide in the wilds of eastern France their iron-fisted leader is being targeted by a Military Police captain with a personal vendetta and they may find that no matter where they run they cannot escape danger in this novel of the First World War that offers a different kind of story The New York Times An imaginative war story It is Hill's compassionate portrayal of the intricacies of sibling and

Notes from No Man's Land Eula Biss, 2018-11-06 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for Criticism Winner of the Graywolf Press Nonfiction Prize Acclaimed for its frank and fascinating investigation of racial identity and reissued on its ten year anniversary Notes from No Man's Land begins with a series of lynchings ends with a list of apologies and in an unsettling new coda revisits a litany of murders that no one seems capable of solving Eula Biss explores race in America through the experiences chronicled in these essays teaching in a Harlem school on the morning of 9 11 reporting from an African American newspaper in San Diego watching the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina from a college town in Iowa and rereading Laura Ingalls Wilder in the Rogers Park neighborhood of Chicago What she reveals is how families schools communities and our country participate in preserving white privilege Notes from No Man's Land is an essential portrait of America that established Biss as one of the most distinctive and inventive essayists of our time No Man's Land Sandra M. Gilbert, Susan Gubar, 1991-01-23 V 1 the war of the words V 2 sexchanges Vermont, Once No Man's Land Merritt Clark Barden, 1928 A genealogical summary of the families who have lived along the New York border in Vermont and their connection with those who lived over the line in New York Multitribal Indians In Search of No Man's Land Carla Toney, 2022-12-12 During the American westward expansion Chickamaugans originally Cherokees prioritized resistance to the U S government and Euro American invaders They signed treaties with Great Britain and Spain Overlooked by scholars it was the diplomatic savvy of Chickamaugan women and the support of their numerous allies British loyalists free persons of color former slaves and Native Americans from other nations that made it possible for Chickamaugan resistance to last from 1775 to 1794 Carla Toney proves that after the collapse of their resistance many chose migration not as individuals but in migration clusters She clearly elucidates the feudal patterns brought to the United States the cultural fluidity of Indigenous nations and migration as a form of resistance No Man's Land Vol. 01 Jason DeAngelis, Jennyson Rosero, 2005-03-15 The Good The Bad and the Demonic John Parker had it all A decorated sharpshooter in the Civil War he had a promising career ahead of him a beautiful wife and a newborn son But after becoming embroiled in a dark and demonic conspiracy engineered by the Bakerton Detective Agency he lost everything Fleeing to the West a broken man Parker reinvents himself as No Man a heartless gun for hire whose only solace comes from hunting and killing the demons who he helped set loose With Buntline Special in hand a deadly revolver with a 16 inch barrel he blasts his way through a different kind of Old West where strange and evil beings lurk Dancing in No Man's Land Brian Jennings, 2018 Are you tired of the conflict all around you It happens over and over again A political argument with a friend a fight about racial issues on the internet a disagreement with a coworker at the first sign of conflict we flee to a bunker with people who think like us and attack everyone else We feel safe there but it's killing us killing families friendships civility and discourse Our fractured world desperately needs a different way people who will speak gently value truth and think clearly Dancing in No Man's Land is a rallying cry a life giving and practical journey into the way of Jesus that will revolutionize how you view conflict You can choose to speak both truth and peace in the midst of war You can step out of our bunkers and into no man's land where only brave souls tread It may look like you're dodging cultural landmines But you might just be learning how to dance
