Taking Your MLIS Abroad Lara Seven Phillips, Katherine G. Holvoet, 2016-11-28. This book explains how and why to get an international library job, what to expect when you arrive in your host country and how to overcome challenges in your new home. For those who possess an ALA accredited degree, there are opportunities to work in library settings around the world and many of these attractive career options do not require non-English language skills or an EEC Commonwealth citizenship. This guide to library work in countries outside the United States and Canada explains the benefits of taking on a library position in an international setting, how to find such a job, what to expect in working in a library outside of North America, and what strategies to employ to be successful and happy living and working in your host country. This guide answers all the questions that a librarian considering a position abroad would have and it also covers subjects and concerns that might not be as obvious. Based on the direct experiences of the authors as well as anecdotal accounts from other librarians who have worked around the world, the book informs readers about common cultural differences with the application and interview process, explains how workplaces and working assumptions can be different from American expectations, profiles the different procedures, collection scope, curricular support, and intellectual freedom policies of libraries outside the United States and Canada, and describes the unique experience of moving to another country and living as an expat.

Understanding Saudi Arabia Today Klepeis Alicia, 2014-11. Understanding Saudi Arabia Today is an accurate and contemporary presentation that explores the Middle Eastern nation of Saudi Arabia with a focus on the country as it is today, current issues, culture, and lifestyle. The book is written in an easy-to-read, enjoyable narrative form for elementary readers. 8-11. The Saudi Arabia title includes a native recipe and craft for students to create. Elementary students are encouraged to consider evidence from informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. Series titles have been developed to address many of the Common Core specific goals: higher-level thinking skills and progressive learning strategies for middle grade and junior high-level students.

The Arab Lobby and the US Dania Koleilat Khatib, 2015-10-23. All the components needed to construct an Arab lobby exist: the significant Arab Diaspora in the US, the historic strategic relationship between Arab Gulf States and the US, and the Gulf's economic wealth. However, lobbying is alien to Arab culture and largely absent from its political landscape. To achieve a fair and objective assessment of Arab Gulf lobbying, it is necessary to have a thorough understanding of the prevailing Arab Gulf political culture that shapes it. The Arab Lobby and the US provides a timely contribution to this understanding. Studying attempts by Arab Gulf states to effectively lobby the US government it explores aspects of their lobbying behaviour in order to identify the factors that lead to success and those that lead to failure from their lobbying endeavours In this respect the research utilizes two case studies one in which Arab Gulf state lobbying was successful and another in which lobbying failed In tandem with an analysis of the strategies or lack of them behind Arab Gulf states lobbying the research examines additional relevant factors such as the organization and activism of the US Arab American community the strategic value of the Arab Gulf to the US and the negative image of Arabs in America The book considers the obstacles to the establishment of an effective Arab Gulf lobby in the US in order to reach an informed conclusion that evaluates the prospects of an effective Arab Gulf lobby As one of the few academic research works on the Arab Lobby this work will be of value to scholars and policy makers interested in US domestic politics and Arab American activism as well as students of Middle Eastern Studies Arab Gulf studies and communication and public relations among others

Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2016 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies, 2015 We Can't Say We Didn't Know Sophie McNeill, 2020-03-01 Dispatches from an age of impunity by the ABCTV award winning investigative reporter and former foreign correspondent Shortlisted for the 2020 Walkley Book Award For more than 15 years award winning journalist Sophie McNeill has reported on some of the most war ravaged and oppressive places on earth including Syria Gaza Yemen West Bank and Iraq In We Can't Say We Didn't Know Sophie tells the human stories of devastation and hope behind the headlines of children families and refugees of valiant doctors steadfast dissidents and Saudi women seeking asylum These innocent civilians bear the brunt of the lawlessness of the current age of impunity where war crimes go unpunished and human rights are abused Many risk everything they know to stand up for what they believe in and to be on the right side of history and their courage is extraordinary and inspiring McNeill also examines what happens when evidence and facts become subjective and debatable and how and why disinformation impunity and hypocrisy now reign supreme We can't say we didn't know the question now is what are you going to do about it

Half Past Ten in the Afternoon James Budd, Paul Auchterlonie, 2014-05-31 Much of this book is a record of the time the author spent between 1965 and 1970 as an English teacher in Aneiza a provincial town in central Saudi Arabia In an entertaining series of anecdotes he describes the daily life and customs of its people his relations with colleagues and students at the local secondary school and the events leading up to his removal from the town he had come to regard as home his transfer to Riyadh and final departure from the country In the 1960s Aneiza was still living partly in the age of Charles Doughty the 19th century explorer who stayed there for some weeks in the 1870s and architecturally the town had changed little over the intervening decades On the other hand its mid 20th century inhabitants were very much aware of what was happening in the wider world and felt deeply involved with events in the region This involvement is reflected in a chapter on inter Arab politics the Six Day War of June 1967 and its causes and aftermath The author s story does not end in 1970 In Journey to Makkah he writes of his transition from agnosticism to Islam and gives us an account of his pilgrimage to Makkah in 1996 in the company of one of his old students from Aneiza Finally in Aneiza Revisited he describes the town in its 21st century incarnation during his return visit in 2011 Despite Aneiza s material transformation however with its concrete and glass buildings and fast food outlets he found that despite looking very different it had still managed to retain its intimate social character and essential congeniality

My Creature, My Love Alfredo R. Sandoval, 2014-06-15 My Creature My Love begins with a young girl s admiration and deep unrelenting reverence for a serpent she sees close to the foot of a cross on a mountaintop An unnatural and consecrated attraction and adoration to a skillfully prepared stuffed rattlesnake she insisted her father buy for her in an antique shop in Albuquerque New Mexico provides a morbid and suspenseful setting for this story A bizarre and lurid companionship exists between the girl and the reptile This communal love and veneration relationship is a very strong weapon she uses on anybody to have her own way especially to hold her widowed father s love for herself and nobody else Unlike the current day portrayal of horror in movies and other media My Creature My Love conveys a suspenseful illustration of bestiality and the power it has when used to serve the willful desires of the main character
