Martin, 2012-08-20 The question of whether and how people who have not had the chance to hear the gospel can be saved goes back to the beginnings of Christian reflection It has also become a much debated topic in current theology In Will Many Be Saved Ralph Martin focuses primarily on the history of debate and the development of responses to this question within the Roman Catholic Church but much of Martin s discussion is also relevant to the wider debate happening in many churches around the world In particular Martin analyzes the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church the document from the Second Vatican Council that directly relates to this question Contrary to popular opinion Martin argues that according to this text the conditions under which people who have not heard the gospel can be saved are very often in fact not fulfilled with strong implications for evangelization
