Sawdust And Soul A Conversation About Woodworking And Spirituality:

Sawdust and Soul William Johnson Everett, John W. de Gruchy, 2014-12-16 An American ethicist and a South African theologian reflect on their work with wood and how it has helped them find creativity and meaning in experiences of both loss and transformation Through their friendship correspondence and work together they have developed a rich narrative about the way this craftwork has shaped their relationships with family friends and their natural environment Their conversation invites both craftspeople and religious seekers to join them on a spiritual journey toward fresh insight and inspiration

Making My Way in Ethics, Worship, and Wood William Johnson Everett, 2021-09-17 William Everett has taught in Catholic and Protestant theological schools in the United States Germany India and South Africa Out of these rich and varied experiences he lays out here in concise manner the main concepts theories and commitments that have emerged in his work From his origins in Washington DC to his later research in Germany India South Africa and Cyprus he reflects on how his experience and life story have shaped his intellectual and religious vision This exposition of his thought ranges from construction of frameworks for relating Christianity to the behavioral sciences to substantive engagement with concepts of covenant and constitutionalism the oikos of work family and faith and ecological and restorative justice Moving beyond the academic he shows us how his poetry liturgies historical fiction and woodcraft also manifest many of these themes in other forms In this exposition and interrogation of his life and work Everett invites us into deeper reflection on the connections that constitute our own

I Have Come a Long Way John W. de Gruchy, 2016-03-18 If my life and experience is of some interest it is chiefly so because I have lived through interesting times in an interesting country traveled to many interesting places and been accompanied along the way by interesting folk John de Gruchy is a renowned South African theologian and an inspiration to many An expert on the work of the anti Nazi theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer De Gruchy is also a local struggle icon in his own right In this book we trace his story from his Viking ancestry via a seafaring grandfather and illegitimate grandmother to where he became an ecumenical activist for the South African Council of Churches and up to the present We journey through a South Africa in transition and a rapidly changing global society Along the way we meet varied often controversial people like Albert Luthuli Jaap Durand P W Botha and Constand Viljoen With a foreword by his friend Desmond Tutu this is the tale of an extraordinary life lived to the full

Turnings William Johnson Everett, 2013-03-12 Like works in wood upon a lathe these poems are word turnings that reveal the inner grain of our human experience They are bowls to catch our turnings of memory conversion falling in love and passing through our seasons and the wrenching turns that mark our lives Above all these turnings are a shout of praise a murmur of wonder a turning away from life as usual a merciful re turning to the songs images and stories that move our lives
