The Charged Classroom Judith L. Pace, 2015-02-11 At a time when debate over school reform commands unprecedented attention Judith L Pace argues we must grapple with the underlying challenges of classroom teaching and at the same time strive to realize the ideals of democratic education Building on three qualitative studies in grades four through twelve The Charged Classroom examines the deeply embedded tensions escalating pressures and exciting possibilities of the contemporary American public school classroom Through detailed descriptions and analyses of social studies and English language arts classrooms Pace disentangles how teachers and students navigate three charged arenas academic expectations discussion of provocative topics and curricular demands In each domain democratic learning opportunities such as promotion of positive student identity dialogue across differences and exploration of conflict are both opened up and closed down A passionate and persuasive call for education reform the book offers crucial insights about the realities of teaching and key recommendations for advancing democratic education in a multicultural society DOD Pam United States. Purcell, Jann H. Leppien, 2009-08-25 The Parallel Curriculum Model PCM holds the power to help students and teachers see the whole of what they are learning We invite practitioners to read more about this model and join us on a professional journey that we believe will yield that joy and wisdom that comes from seeing the whole To address the varying needs of teachers across the K 12 grade span as well as different content areas we decided to create a series of curriculum units based on PCM that could be used by practitioners It is our hope that the lessons not only underscore important and discipline specific content but also illuminate the four parallels in unique and enduring ways From the Introduction Design exemplary language arts lessons based on the Parallel Curriculum Model Want to create rigorous learning opportunities for students in language arts based on a deeper understanding of pedagogy and curriculum
