Policy Manual

16. Maternity Leave Policy

Scope

Describe the scope of the policy, for example:

"The policy covers all employees who are pregnant, have recently given birth or who are breastfeeding. It covers part-time, full time and [company] employees. It also covers male employees in the event of the mother's death."

Duration

Confirm whether this policy is Temporary or Permanent.

Effective Date

State the date from when this policy is effective.

Policy

Describe the objective of this policy:

Ante Natal and Post Natal Care

An employee is entitled to paid leave for ante-natal and post-natal care. An employee will receive paid leave for any ante-natal medical appointments before the birth and postnatal medical appointments for the first [X] weeks following the birth. An employee must give her supervisor [X] week's written notice of any appointment and must produce a certificate/record that the visit took place. If an employee needs urgent medical attention, she must give written notice of the appointment within [X] week of the appointment taking place.

Maternity Policy

An employee must notify her supervisor, in writing, of her intention to take maternity leave no later than [X] weeks before maternity leave begins. The employee must produce a medical certificate confirming the pregnancy and giving the expected date of confinement. A pregnant employee is entitled to [X] weeks maternity leave. The employee must take at least [X] weeks leave before the expected birth of the baby and no less than 4 weeks after the birth of the baby. An employee may not take more than [X] weeks leave after the birth of the baby.
