Crime and Punishment in Islamic Law Rudolph Peters, 2005 This book first published in 2006 is an account of the theory and practice of Islamic criminal law Prison and Slavery - A Surprising Comparison John Dewar Gleissner, 2010-11-17 This historically accurate and thoroughly researched book compares the modern American prison system to antebellum slavery The surprising comparison proves that antebellum slavery was not as bad as many believe while modern mass incarceration is an unrealized social and financial disaster of mammoth proportions Crime and Punishment in Islamic Law Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2019 In Crime and Punishment in Islamic Law A Fresh Interpretation Mohammad Kamali considers problems associated with and proposals for reform of the hudud punishments prescribed by Islamic criminal law and other topics related to crime and punishment in Shariah He examines what the Qur'an and hadith say about hudud punishments as well as just retaliation qisas and discretionary punishments ta'zir and looks at modern day applications of Islamic criminal law in 15 Muslim countries Particular attention is given to developments in Malaysia a multi religious society federal state and self described democracy where a lively debate about hudud has been on going for the last three decades Malaysia presents a particularly interesting case study of how a reasonably successful country with a market economy high levels of exposure to the outside world and a credible claim to inclusivity deals with Islamic and Shariah related issues Kamali concludes that there is a significant gap between the theory and practice of hudud in the scriptural sources of Shariah and the scholastic articulations of jurisprudence of the various schools of Islamic law arguing that literalism has led to such rigidity as to make Islamic criminal law effectively a dead letter His goal is to provide a fresh reading of the sources of Shariah and demonstrate how the Qur'an and Sunnah can show the way forward to needed reforms of Islamic criminal law

The Heart of Islam Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 2009-03-17 As the specter of religious extremism has become a fact of life today the temptation is great to allow the evil actions and perspectives of a minority to represent an entire tradition In the case of Islam there has been much recent confusion in the Western world centered on distorted portrayals of its core values Born of ignorance such confusion feeds the very problem at hand In The Heart of Islam one of the great intellectual figures in Islamic history offers a timely presentation of the core spiritual and social values of Islam peace compassion social justice and respect for the other Seizing this unique moment in history to reflect on the essence of his tradition Seyyed Hossein Nasr seeks to open a spiritual and intellectual space for mutual understanding Exploring Islamic values in scripture traditional sources and history he also shows their clear counterparts in the Jewish and Christian traditions revealing the common ground of the Abrahamic faiths Nasr challenges members of the world's civilizations to stop demonizing others while identifying themselves with pure goodness and to turn instead to a deeper understanding of those shared values that can solve the acute problems facing humanity today Muslims must ask themselves what went wrong within their own societies he writes but the West must also pose the same question about itself whether we are Muslims Jews Christians or even secularists whether we live in the Islamic world or in the West we are in need of meaning in our lives of ethical norms to guide our actions of a vision that would allow us to live at peace with each other and with the rest of God's creation Such help he believes lies at the heart of every religion and can lead the followers of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as well as other religious and spiritual traditions to a new future of mutual respect and common global purpose The Heart of Islam is a landmark presentation of enduring value that offers hope to humanity and a compelling portrait of the beauty and appeal of the faith of 1.2 billion people

Minors' Crimes in Saudi Arabia Hajed A. Alotaibi, 2020-01-24 This book investigates a number of thematic problems related to the Saudi Arabian juvenile detention system. These issues concern the lack of codification and consolidation, an unclear determination of the age of puberty, the misclassification of juveniles' crimes, and gross inconsistency in the penalties meted out. This study employs a mixed methodology involving both analytical and statistical approaches to the problem. It examines judicial applications from three courts in Riyadh to clarify the traditional classification for juveniles' crimes, namely Hudud, Qisas, and Ta'zir crimes.
