Series A It's kind of embarrassing but it was my coping mechanism after my life took an unexpected turn. In 1996 I called off my wedding only six weeks before it happened but don't worry I found my Prince Charming later. Consequently I was in this weird emotional state. Writing became my refuge. I didn't write the whole book then but I did write several scenes, chose the character names and laid out the blueprint for my novel. Q What made you finish writing the first book? A In late 2008 I went back to what I had written again and toyed around for a long time. But it wasn't until a student saw my manuscript sitting on a table and asked if she could read it that things got real. I nervously let her. Dying a little bit inside. Then she did the most magical thing she asked if she could take it home to finish reading. It spurred me on and I've never looked back. Q What were your influences? A I graduated with my degree in English and have a deep love of mythology and literature. Works like Paradise Lost, The Book of Enoch, Dracula and The Tempest were all influences. I also had a friend introduce me to the old cult classic film Highlander when I was in college. This combined with The Book of Enoch sparked my ideas for my Watchers. No it wasn't Buffy the Vampire Slayer. This was before the show ever aired. But we did use a lot of the same source material. I love the niches of urban fantasy and paranormal romance too. I wanted my books to be a journey for my characters where they will find romance along the way along with twists, turns, action, thrills and a dash of mystery and intrigue. The Unintended starts off a little slower because of world building but by the time you get to The Nexus be prepared for a rollercoaster ride. Q In what order should we read them? A If you want maximum suspense this is my recommended order: The Unintended, The Nexus, Allure, the prequel The Sacrifice, The Fallen Part 1, The Fallen Part 2, Light and Shadow, Watcher Series, Shorts, Extras. I recommend reading The Price after The Nexus. The alternate point of view will change everything.
