The Common Core in Action Deborah J. Jesseman,2015-06-19

This book addresses Common Core State Standard curriculum resources to assist the school librarian in collaborating with classroom teachers. Librarians are being asked to understand the Common Core State Standards CCSS and their implications to programming and instruction as well as to collection development planning. Using lesson plans originally published in School Library Monthly, this title builds upon them, adding many additional plans that address CCSS issues. The plans will help you implement the standards and can also be used as stepping stones to facilitate planning conversations and collaboration with teachers to co-teach lessons correlated with the standards. The book begins with an overview of the CCSS: what they are, how they are different from the content standards, and what the implications are for schools where the state has adopted them, including what the CCSS mean for collection development. It then goes on to explore the opportunities the CCSS present for the school librarian, looking at how you can become a leader in employing the process. The majority of the book is devoted to reproducible lesson plans organized by curricular area or topic and grade level for ease of use.

Social Studies and Diversity Education Elizabeth E. Heilman, Ramona Fruja Amthor, Matthew T. Missias, 2010. The preparation of social studies teachers is crucial not only to the project of good education but even more broadly to the cultivation of a healthy democracy and the growth of a nation of citizens. This one-of-a-kind resource features ideas from over 100 of the field's most thoughtful teacher educators reflecting on their best practices and offering specific strategies through which future teachers can learn to teach, thus illuminating the careful planning and deep thinking that go into the preparation of the social studies teachers. While concentrating on daily teaching realities such as lesson planning and meeting national state or provincial standards, each contributor also wrestles with the most important current issues on educating teachers for today's increasingly diverse, complex, and global society. Features of this unique teaching resource include: Volume sections that are arranged by both disciplinary organization and approach or activity; Thoughtful introductory section essays that conceptualize each theme, providing a conscientious theoretical overview and analysis of each individual section; Rich and concrete examples of best practice from some of the field's most diverse and highly regarded scholars and teacher educators; An index that identifies the appropriate teaching level and teacher education context and links the strategies and ideas that are presented in the essay to the relevant INTASC and NCSS standards for quick reference in classroom planning as well as institutional development and implementation. A much-needed addition to the field, this comprehensive volume will be of value to any teacher interested in social studies or diversity education across age groups and educational contexts.

Headquarters Intercom United States. Federal Aviation Administration, 1999-03. Climate Trauma E. Ann Kaplan, 2015-12-04. Each month brings new scientific findings that demonstrate the ways in which human activities, from resource extraction to carbon emissions, are doing unprecedented, perhaps irreparable damage to our world. As we hear these climate change reports and their predictions for the future of Earth many of us feel a sickening sense of déjà vu as though we have already seen the sad outcome to this story Drawing from recent scholarship that analyzes climate change as a form of slow violence that humans are inflicting on the environment Climate Trauma theorizes that such violence is accompanied by its own psychological condition what its author terms Pretraumatic Stress Disorder Examining a variety of films that imagine a dystopian future renowned media scholar E Ann Kaplan considers how the increasing ubiquity of these works has exacerbated our sense of impending dread But she also explores ways these films might help us productively engage with our anxieties giving us a seemingly prophetic glimpse of the terrifying future selves we might still work to avoid becoming Examining dystopian classics like Soylent Green alongside more recent examples like The Book of Eli Climate Trauma also stretches the limits of the genre to include features such as Blindness The Happening Take Shelter and a number of documentaries on climate change These eclectic texts allow Kaplan to outline the typical blind spots of the genre which rarely depicts climate catastrophe from the vantage point of women or minorities Lucidly synthesizing cutting edge research in media studies psychoanalytic theory and environmental science Climate Trauma provides us with the tools we need to extract something useful from our nightmares of a catastrophic future
