Focus on World History Kathy Sammis,2002-09 Topics include Empires and societies of Eurasia European Renaissance and Reformation Causes and consequences of the age of revolutions Interactions and conflicts between Europe and Asia

Thinking Globally and Responding Locally in the Church Thomas Knieps-Port le Roi,Shaji George Kochuthara,David Dawson Vasquez,2023-07

How has Pope Francis s groundbreaking document on marriage and family Amoris Laetitia been implemented in Africa In Asia In Latin America In this volume scholars from across these regions reflect on their experiences correcting the overly western focus of most reactions to AL The contributions look at local issues like polygamy in Africa as well as more global issues in a local context like feminism in Indonesia and synodality in Colombia The reader will find that concerns about marriage and family can be similar throughout the world or specific to different contexts As a whole the book contributes to a more diverse and revisited catholic understanding of marriage and family

The Watchtower and the Cross D. A. Shane,2024-06-13 How far would you go to pursue truth For a boy raised in the Jehovah s Witness religion truth is taken for granted But as adolescence sets in the desire for more in life impels him to seek answers to his questions outside the four walls of the local Kingdom Hall Tortured by his past and his uncertainty about the present he wanders far afield and ultimately into a booze soaked despair that he is unable to free himself from But in that powerlessness God seeks him and in the process of giving him a new lease on life lights the pathways of truth once more With this newfound faith the boy now a man journeys forth to places as diverse as Marine Corps bootcamp and Catholic seminary all the while navigating the minefield of ideologies and competing belief systems that litter our postmodern society He loses and gains family and trades his place on the Watchtower for a spot underneath the Cross

If God Meant to Interfere Christopher Douglas,2016-04-21 The rise of the Christian Right took many writers and literary critics by surprise trained as we were to think that religions waned as societies became modern In If God Meant to Interfere Christopher Douglas shows that American writers struggled to understand and respond to this new social and political force Religiously inflected literature since the 1970s must be understood in the context of this unforeseen resurgence of conservative Christianity he argues a resurgence that realigned the literary and cultural fields Among the writers Douglas considers are Marilynne Robinson Barbara Kingsolver Cormac McCarthy Thomas Pynchon Ishmael Reed N Scott Momaday Gloria Anzald a Philip Roth Carl Sagan and Dan Brown Their fictions engaged a wide range of topics religious conspiracies faith and wonder slavery and imperialism evolution and extraterrestrial contact alternate histories and ancestral spiritualities But this is only part of the story Liberal leaning literary writers responding to the resurgence were sometimes confused by the Christian Right s strange entanglement with the contemporary paradigms of multiculturalism and postmodernism leading to complex emergent phenomena that Douglas terms Christian multiculturalism and Christian postmodernism Ultimately If God Meant to Interfere shows the value of listening to our literature for its sometimes subterranean attention to the religious and social upheavals going on around it
