New Family Car Service Uws:

Training Police as Specialists in Family Crisis Intervention New York (N.Y.). City College. Psychological Center, Morton Bard, 1970 This training was intended to demonstrate innovative methods of crime prevention and preventive mental health Processing family disturbances constitutes a major aspect of police work Traditional police approaches to the problem do not reflect the realities of this police experience There is evidence that a significant proportion of injuries and fatalities suffered by police occur in the highly volatile family conflict situation The present project attempted to modify family assaults and family homicides and to reduce personal danger to police officers in such situations The project attempted the development of a new preventive mental health strategy Assuming that family conflict may be an early sign of emotional disorder in one or all of the participants the project attempted to utilize policemen as front line casefinders in keeping with theories of primary prevention It was proposed that selected policemen could be provided with interpersonal skills necessary to effect constructive outcomes in deteriorating situations which require police intervention Rejection of an exclusively specialized role for the police officers involved was a major emphasis The program avoided the conversion of policemen into social workers or psychotherapists The officers were expected to perform all generalized police patrol functions but were the individuals dispatched on all family disputes in a given geographical area In addition to continuous group experience each family specialist was assigned an individual consultant for at least one hour weekly consultation The individual consultants were advanced clinical psychology students who acquired in this way an unusual community consultation experience The reciprocal effect of these encounters on the students and upon the policemen is self evident Family Circle Susan

Braudy, 2014-10-29 When Kathy Boudin was arrested in 1981 after a botched armed robbery and shootout that left a Brinks guard and two policemen dead she ended a decade living underground as part of the radical Weathermen underground she would spend the next 22 years in Bedford Hills prison In Family Circle Boudin s former classmate Susan Braudy vividly recreates the radicalization of this intelligent privileged young woman who came from one of the most prominent liberal intellectual families in America She illuminates Boudin s relationship with her parents and particularly with her father Leonard a famous leftist lawyer and shows how Kathy swept up in the ferment of the late 1960s moved further and further from the Old Left ideals they embodied Based on extensive interviews court documents and Boudin family papers Family Circle is both a rich biography of a family and a intimate window into a turbulent and fascinating time Upper West Side

Story Peter Salwen, 1989 As any resident restaurateur or realtor will tell you New York s Upper West Side that swath of Manhattan between Central Park and the Hudson River from roughly Columbus Circle to Columbia University is the place for fashionable dining dwelling and dressing up But the Young Urban Professionals now discovering the area and many oldtimers too might be surprised to learn that other colonists had preceded them by two or three hundred years Dutch farmers and English gentry with names like Theunis Idens van Huys Hendrick Hendrickon Bosch Charles Ward Apthorpe and Oliver De

Lancey The names of many later residents are more familiar Edgar Allan Poe William Tecumseh Sherman Lillian Russell Diamond Jim Brady Florenz Ziegfeld Arturo Toscanini Fanny Brice William Randolph Hearst Theodore Dreiser Lewis Mumford Humphrey Bogart he was a child there Lauren Bacall so was she Gertrude Stein Mae West Leonard Bernstein John Lennon Quite a neighborhood And Peter Salwen's Upper West Side Story is quite a book an engaging often hilarious history of this fabulous city within a city It is a treasury of colorful biographies of farmers tycoons thieves and artists It is an architectural grand tour of the Dakota the Ansonia Lincoln Center and the romantic residential skyscrapers of Central Park West It is a compendium of Manhattan lore and delightful as well as occasionally horrifying trivia enough to turn even a casual browser into the Compleat Upper West Sider The story of this dynamic neighborhood begins with the colonial period when merchant princes commanded royal views of the Hudson until the approach of Washington's troops drove them from their mansions and continues through the bucolic nineteenth century when the Bloomingdale Lunatic Asylum at 116th and Broadway site of today's Columbia University was the Upper West Side's prime tourist attraction By the turn of the twentieth century the fashionable West End as the neighborhood was then known boasted extravagant mansions and private homes grand parks and equestrian boulevards and its own unique theatrical and night life Author Peter Salwen chronicles those high living years and the half century of inexorable decline that followed with its poverty and often sensational crime and brings us up to date with a lively account of the 1980s galloping renaissance This book is living history an unfinished story generously illustrated with vintage engravings and photos of the buildings and people great and humble those still with us and those that are no more Also included are special walking tours to suit all levels of ambition and energy and a who's who of famous and infamous residents and where they lived Dust jacket
