Panama Spin the Plot. Characterized by the same bold power and sweeping honesty that made "In Tragic Life" a great book, but enhanced by a broadened canvas and deeper bits of humor that show a growing versatility in the author.

We Are Strapped. This, the third volume of Vardis Fisher's tetralogy, shows Vreider searching in books and in the hearts of men for the meaning of life.

"The emotional drive is something subtle, so far as I know, has never been seen in American fiction before—and I have not in my fiction."—Clyde Buck.

"Vardis Fisher is trying to write an honest book. Readers of the first three in the tetralogy will admit, some surely and some with reserve, that so far he has done his best. He is a brave man, and he has a large heart. He is a brave man, and he has a large heart. He is a brave man, and he has a large heart."—Time.

Meredith,2013-01-08 Modern Love and Poems of the English Roadside occupies a distinctive and somewhat notorious place within George Meredith s already unique body of work Modern Love is now best known for the emotionally intense sonnet cycle which Meredith s own contemporaries dismissed as scandalously confessional and indiscreet While individual sonnets from the work have been anthologized the complete cycle is rarely included and the original edition has not been reprinted since its first appearance in 1862 This edition restores the original publication and supplements it with a range of accompanying materials that will re introduce Meredith s astonishing collection of poetry to a new generation of readers

Beyond the Arab Disease Riad Nourallah,2006-07-13 Presenting bold and original insights this book examines the policies and diplomacies pursued by Arab and Western governments while discussing both the political and cultural roles played by the modern Arab World It explores the various facets of the malaise affecting the Arab world stressing the urgent call for reform and recovery as well as the need to address major issues including inter Arab affairs relations with a hegemonic USA and peace with Israel In addition the book provides new perspectives on a range of topics including Arab and Muslim diplomacy literature and culture often as these interact with Western models and paradigms in an increasingly interconnected but challenging world Employing a combination of disciplines and discourses the book aids learners and policy makers in better understanding the Arab world s successes and failures in its problematic relations with the West and modernity The Living Age ,1897 The Art of Restraint Richard Hoffpauir,1991 Richard Hoffpauir argues that the works of the best poets have found ways of not capitulating to contemporary reality and outlines the terms of the debate by setting the weaknesses of Yeats against the strenghts of Hardy Subsequent chapters discuss the nature poetry of Edward thomas the war poetry of Graves Blunden and Gurney the love poetry of Bridges Lawrence and Graves and the political and social verse of Rickword Daryush Betjeman and Larkin Littell's Living Age ,1904 British History in the Nineteenth Century

(1782-1901) George Macaulay Trevelyan,1928 British History in the Nineteenth Century George Macaulay Trevelyan,1923 Supreme Attachments Kerry McSweeney,2016-12-05 The Victorian poetry of sexual love between men and women has not been as fully studied as other components of the imaginative literature of the period and some of the attention it has received has been more concerned with the society and ideology of the age than with the poetry or the love

This study attempts an integrated account of the three elements with particular emphasis on the close reading of poems. Chapters are devoted to the distinguishing features of Victorian love poetry: Browning's dramatic lyrics, Tennyson's Maud and the lyrics from Princess; women poets: Barrett Browning, Christina Rossetti and Emily Dickinson; Clough's three long poems of contemporary life; Meredith's Modern Love; the lyrics written by Morris and Dante Rossetti during the late 1860s and early 1870s when the latter was conducting an affair with Morris' wife and two elegiac sequences; the bereavement odes from Patmore's Unknown Eros and Hardy's Poems of 1912-13. A final chapter uses the love poetry of D. H. Lawrence to point up continuities between Victorian and later love poetry.

The Heart's Events Patricia M. Ball, 2014-01-13 Dr Ball offers an analysis and evaluation of a number of Victorian long poems and groups of lyrics which trace the course of close personal relationships. Her argument is that whereas Romantic treatment of such material was limited, the Victorian poets not only made this emotional territory their own but explored it with vigour, variety and enterprise and great technical resource. This is apparent as Dr Ball shows whether the poets concern themselves with crises such as loss through death in Memoriam, Patmore's odes of bereavement or breakdown Modern Love, Maud James Lee's Wife or whether they portray the intricate flux of mutual attraction and courtship as in Amours de Voyage, The Bothie of Tober-na-Vuolich and The Angel in the House. The Heart's Events brings out strongly the experimental vitality and range of Victorian poetry and in particular its sensitive imaginative response to the subtleties of psychological time and change in its records of the inner histories of love. Novel-Poetry Emily Allen, Dino Franco Felluga, 2024-09-05 Novel Poetry examines the verse novel, a hybrid genre that emerged in the middle decades of Britain's nineteenth century to make a larger claim about the nature of genre and formal structures for time, action and identity that cross genres. The volume uncovers trajectories of literary influence that structure our approach to literature and affect how we shape our lives, lives which are often constrained by cause and effect and narrative-driven ways of approaching time and possibility. Novel Poetry tracks an alternative way of thinking about time and event that was inspired by the French Revolution, popularized by Lord Byron and explored by experimental Victorian poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Robert Browning, Arthur Hugh Clough and George Meredith. The volume turns to the work of philosophers Alain Badiou, Jean-Pierre Dupuy and Slavoj Žižek to theorize this alternative mode which it aligns with the futur antérieur. The temporality of the future anterior disrupts both the novel's realist chronologies and the expressionist lyric's cult of the moment, thus liberating possibilities for collective action. Ranging widely across romantic lyric poetry, Victorian novels and nineteenth-century and contemporary literary theory, Novel Poetry asks what alternative structures and temporalities does a focus on either realistic narrative or the lyric moment occlude. Are there ways of thinking about lived experience and personal or collective agency that do not conform to traditional models? Ways that the verse novel might help us to explore? What might be gained today from trying to think about ourselves and our world outside of established frameworks that are now so naturalized as to feel almost inescapable? This is
