Playing Hard Ball E.T. Smith, 2014-09-04 PLAYING HARD BALL is a unique sports book a cultural comparison of two national games cricket English in origin and American baseball written from the viewpoint of a top class practitioner of both codes Ed Smith the young Cambridge University and Kent batsman has spent the winters since 1998 in Spring Training with the New York Mets baseball team It has enabled Ed to contrast and compare arguably the two most iconic of sports from the inside In fact baseball had a thriving following in Britain until the Great War Derby County's former stadium was called the Baseball Ground Tottenham Hotspur was at first a baseball club Apart from learning two very different techniques Ed learned that the sports ultimate heroes the Babe and the Don Babe Ruth and Don Bradman might as well have come from different planets whilst baseball's pristine Hall of Fame in Cooperstown is a far cry from the ramshackle cricket museum at Lord's Ed Smith's PLAYING HARD BALL draws on these intriguing comparisons to paint a two sided portrait of sports most illustrious hitting games

Sweet St. Louis Omar Tyree, 2008-06-30 New York Times bestselling author Omar Tyree's seductive insightful novel exploring the age old question how do people fall in love and stay in love When Anthony Ant Poole a young auto mechanic with a creative approach to the mating game tries out his latest line on Sharron Francis he has no idea of the impact it will have For Sharron an ordinary girl in search of companionship and happiness Ant's words are filled with mystery and allure Would she really be getting an actual piece of him or just a piece period The more Sharron contemplates Ant's line the more it confounds her When she decides the only way for her to discover its meaning is to discover Ant for herself both her life and his are turned upside down

Ma'am Lue Wyatt, 2011-06-15 Ma'am is a story of an older woman who has lived a life of hard labor She was a woman that not only worked hard she also loved as well Raised in poverty married young with children did the only thing she knew worked Later in life due to circumstances that has happened to so many women adopted five grandchildren Later she discovered to her dismay that while caring for children all her life siblings her own children later her own grandchildren She had forgotten about her own personal life needs and desires While trying to ignore it becomes clinically depressed Youth had slipped away time had forgotten her Once a beautiful red head and now merely a shell of her former self Looking into the bathroom mirror one morning she discovers the answer All through her busy life she held all the emotions in that a woman experiences She had never talked to anyone before but now in the privacy of her home she could pour out all the pain and frustrations that she had felt for so many years Talking to the reflection in the mirror and eventually finds peace of mind Ive tried to describe how a woman would react under this stressful circumstances in which she finds herself In trying to deal with her own personal life and still be responsible for the care of five grandchildren I have written of a woman who is strong life made her that way She also has feet of clay I've tried to portray her as being very human because we all are. In Maam's story she deals with the problems of aging but at the same time she sees humor in everyday happenings and has the ability to laugh at herself as well with other people. The adventures of a woman and Maam are at times hilarious but also truthful but again it is all part of life's story. In my story of Maam the woman has no name because she speaks for umpteen thousands of women all over the world. She also believes in her God but the older she gets the more issues she has. Maam is truthful about her triumphs and her failings as in all our lives there are many.
