

My favourite teacher

My favourite teacher is Mrs. Kulkarni who teaches us Science. She is a strict teacher but very helpful and patient. I like her way of teaching. She explains us all the topics with real life examples so that we understand the concepts clearly. She also encourages us to ask doubts.

Death of an Unsung Hero Tessa Arlen, 2018-03-13 In 1916 the world is at war and the energetic Lady Montfort has persuaded her husband to offer his family's dower house to the War Office as an auxiliary hospital for officers recovering from shell shock. Despite the hospital's success the farming community of Haversham does not approve of a country house hospital for men they consider to be cowards. When Captain Sir Evelyn Bray one of the patients is found lying face down in the vegetable garden with his head bashed in both Lady Montfort and Mrs Jackson have every reason to fear that the War Office will close their hospital. Language Education in China : Policy and Experience from 1949 Agnes S.L. Lam, 2005-10-01 Language Education in China Policy and Experience from 1949 is unprecedented as a comprehensive study of the multilingual circumstances in China. It tracks policy changes in the learning of Chinese foreign languages and minority ethnic languages in China since the establishment of the People's Republic of China in 1949. On the basis of survey and interview data the experiences of different age cohorts of learners are presented as windows to the realities of language education policy implementation over the last half century. The effects of political changes language backgrounds and various motivations for learning at both the national and individual levels are vividly presented in this composite story of China and learners in China.

Between Us Marika Lindholm, Elizabeth Anne Wood, 2024-06-05 The perfect introduction to what sociology is and does presented through powerful essays applying sociological concepts to personal experience. The world is a tough place right now. Climate change income inequality racist violence and the erosion of democracy have exposed the vulnerability of our individual and collective futures. But as the sociologists gathered here by Marika Lindholm and Elizabeth Wood show no matter how helpless we might feel it's vital that we discover new paths toward healing and change. The short accessible emotionally and intellectually powerful essays in Between Us offer a transformative new way to think about sociology and its ability to fuel personal and social change. These forty-five essays reflect a diverse range of experiences. Whether taking an adult son with autism grocery shopping or fighting fires in Barcelona contending with sexism at the beach or facing racism at a fertility clinic celebrating one's immigrant heritage or acknowledging one's KKK ancestors this book shows students that sociology is deeply rooted in everyday life and can be used to help us process and understand it. A perfect introduction to the discipline and why it matters Between Us will resonate with students from all backgrounds as they embark on their academic journey.
