Northern Lights Donald E. Abelson,2016-11-01 Think tanks are often thought of as a uniquely US phenomenon Although the largest concentration of think tanks is in the United States they can be found in virtually every country Often overlooked Canada s think tanks represent a highly diverse and eclectic group of public policy organizations such as the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives the C D Howe Institute the Fraser Institute and the Mowat Centre among others In Northern Lights Donald Abelson explores the rise of think tanks in Canada and addresses many of the most commonly asked questions about how and under what circumstances they are able to affect public opinion and public policy He identifies the ways in which Canadian think tanks often prioritize political advocacy over policy research and seeks to explain why these organizations are well suited and equipped to shape the discourse around key policy issues The first comprehensive examination of think tanks in Canada Northern Lights is both a primer for those looking to understand the role and function of think tanks in the policy making process and a guide to the leading policy institutes in the country The 1989 FAO Standard Specifications for the Marking and Identification of Fishing Vessels: Use and options for review Davies, S., Hjort, A. and Markides, M.,2022-07-19 The marking of fishing vessels is important for their identification to support the global efforts to promote sustainable fisheries for safety at sea and to combat illegal unreported and unregulated fishing For this reason the FAO Standard Specifications for the Marking and Identification of Fishing Vessels were developed and endorsed by COFI in 1989 as a voluntary instrument providing a standardized system for the identification of fishing vessels operating or likely to operate in waters of another State Global developments have had an impact on the usefulness of the FAO Standard Specifications specifically the increased use of the International Maritime Organization number as a unique vessel identifier and the establishment of the FAO s Global Record This document provides background to the development of the FAO Standard Specifications and the results of a study to assess the level of their adoption at the national regional and international levels It also describes progress in the areas of vessel identity vessel tracking different vessel types and catch traceability and how these impact the usefulness of the FAO Standard Specifications Finally the document proposes a review and update of the FAO Standard Specifications VAT Neutrality Charlène Adline Herbain,2015-05-04 Most major economies use a value added tax VAT which is a derivation of the French 1954 taxe sur la valeur ajout e The initial imposition of VAT in France and its spread around the world have been driven by economic reasons This book focuses on one of these economic triggers the neutrality of VAT as regards the functioning of the economy It demonstrates that the reason VAT was chosen in France and why thereafter it spread around the world was because it offered the possibility to collect governmental revenue while allowing the economic forces of the market to interplay without being adversely affected The prerequisite conditions for the existence of VAT neutrality are therefore identified herein along with an overview of the VAT mechanism demonstrating that the concept of neutrality is built into the VAT system in a manner that allows for the preservation of the natural functioning of the market After the definition of VAT neutrality is set forth the elements that comprise VAT neutrality are tested against the realities on the ground and the issues that infringe the neutrality of VAT are identified and analysed In conclusion remedies for these issues are being sought by a review of the causes of infringement of VAT neutrality in the perspective of selected proposals for modified VAT systems These proposals include redesignating the place where VAT is levied and improving VAT collection Ultimately the proposed solution has recourse to the roots of VAT together with the most advanced technological tools available to give back to VAT the power to levy revenue while letting the economic forces of the market interplay without instigating any adverse influence 6 BPP Learning Media,2012-12-01 A Core Study Text for the ATT Qualification The Financial Crisis and White Collar Crime Nicholas Ryder,2014-05-30 This timely book will be of great use to both teachers and students of financial crime relevant modules It will also appeal to policy
