The Chalet School Books and the Twentieth Century Miles Booy, 2025-06-17 The first full length study of this beloved children's series The Chalet School in the Twentieth Century moves beyond the largely generic analysis within which it has previously been discussed. Published between 1925 and 1970 the series moves from European reconciliation after the Great War through a second global conflict to a post war world increasingly defined by increased secularity and emerging consumerism. Reproducing cover illustrations Miles Booy's book examines both those issues which author Elinor M Brent Dyer consciously explored such as the exceptional The Chalet School in Exile which she sought to explain the Nazi occupation of Austria to her young readers and those aspects of the text which must be read symptomatically. This is a book which will engage students with historical and cultural interests beyond children's literature. With barely a midnight feast in sight but much anxiety about social change it's a familiar genre but not as you think you know it. Hurry up new girls class is about to begin

Best Murder in Show Debbie Young, 2022-11-24 A cracking example of cozy crime. Katie Fforde. When amateur writer Sophie Sayers inherits a cottage in the sleepy English Cotswold village of Wendlebury Barrow she's hoping for a fresh start and a chance to finally pursue her dream of becoming a writer. What she gets instead is a dead body found on a carnival float, an extraordinary assortment of suspects and a murder to solve. But who might be to blame? Is the enigmatic bookseller Hector Munro, all he seems. And what about the over friendly neighbour who brings her jars of honey? Not to mention the eccentric village shopkeeper, the village show committee, the writers group and drama club who are all suspiciously keen to welcome her to their midst. Can Sophie find the courage to solve the case or could this new move be her biggest mistake? Perfect for fans of M C Beaton's Agatha Raisin and Hamish Macbeth series. Readers LOVE Debbie Young. A delight from start to finish. Juliette Lawson. An affectionate glimpse of traditional rural English life. The sun shines, the locals gossip, the villagers all come together for the fair. The only problem is a murder. Luckily Sophie is there to solve it. A warm page turner that puts the cosy into cosy mystery. Well worth a read. T A Williams. Warm and cosy, the Sophie Sayers mysteries are full of likeable and eccentric characters inhabiting the idyllic Cotswold village of Wendlebury Barrow where gossip, intrigue and murder are rife. Michelle Salter. I have just finished Best Murder in Show and I just could not put it down. A totally enthralling read from cover to cover. Very well written. Reader Review. Sophie Sayers is the perfect antidote to these difficult times. A Cotswold version of the No 1 Ladies Detective Agency. Reader Review. I just read your Sophie Sayers novels. I loved them. The characters were very likeable and I enjoyed getting to know them. I can't wait for the next installment. Reader Review. Thank you for the gift that is Sophie Sayers. These books have been my lifeline to home over the last year, especially. Reader Review
