School and Community in Less Developed Areas Kevin M. Lillis, 2025-09-01 There has long been a debate about the role of schools and relevant education in community development in less developed areas Efforts are continually being made to relate the work of schools more closely to the life of the local community First published in 1985 School and Community in Less Developed Areas discusses this important subject This volume considers relevant theory and reviews specific examples to highlight the difficulties of translating intentions into practice It examines the problem as it relates to education at different levels and looks at the problem in relation to less developed areas both Third World countries and the more backward parts of developed countries from right around the world The book will be a beneficial read for students and researchers of education

Lui, Rick Sarre, 2019-04-01 Edited by two leading restorative justice scholars from the West and East this unique e book bridges a gap in the literature by bringing together new evidence on the application of restorative practices in educational settings The book has two aims First it builds a bridge between the restorative justice world in the East with that of the West The volume demonstrates how similar the theoretical and practical experiences are in the two sides of the world It presents us with evidence of what works in policy research and practice and allows us to make comparisons for the future Secondly the book challenges restorative justice which is often seen through the narrow lenses of the criminal justice system
