

Disability

Don't you just love it
When people start to say
Who has a disability
And who needs the help

There are some people around
Who think that you can be
Just like you were before
Before the disability

Poem For Children With Learning Disability:

Parenting Children with Learning Disabilities Jane Utley Adelizzi, Diane B. Goss, 2001-04-30 In a straightforward and empathetic tone Adelizzi and Goss sensitively offer support to parents of children with learning disabilities who wish to see their children grow to their full potential While juggling the complex expectations imposed upon them parents often combat confusion anger fear sadness and frustration This book will help diffuse these overwhelming feelings empowering parents with the ability to provide the academic and personal support their children need to thrive Adelizzi and Goss who contribute to a unique and highly successful collegiate program for adults with LD ADD demystify the very fuzzy world of LD terminology and theory and clarify the complicated process of diagnosis and treatment They shed light on the way children and adolescents with learning disabilities function in the home environment in social relationships and at school Parents will find new understanding and hope as the authors with the collective voice of parents and children who deal with LD every day lead them through the maze of issues they must confront
