Jarrett,2009-02-19 From the author of fiction favorite Sunday Brunch comes an inspirational novel about two bitterly divided sisters struggling to forgive each other and renew their faith in God Everything is not always sweet on Magnolia Lane where the Ledoux clan had always gathered under the watchful eye of the family matriarch Hannah Years later Hannah s granddaughter Summer a soon to be bride has planned a weekend event that prompts a major family reunion But once relatives come together to celebrate Summer s wedding generational secrets that have spanned decades slowly come to the surface Blowing in belatedly and stoking long standing resentments is Summer's older sister Misa an international model Unbeknownst to them the sisters share something besides a feud they have inherited the depression that had darkened the life of their mother Elizabeth While Summer relies on God to keep her from the abyss Misa submerges herself in drinks and men But neither can avoid what happens when after a particularly vitriolic argument one of the sisters flees in anger into the darkness of a rain swept night The aftermath leads the sisters to uncover the truth about their family and themselves testing their spiritual reserves And along the way God's spirit continues to send them messages about the beauty of faith and love Spiritual dramatic and a memorable tribute to our beloved New Orleans Jarrett's second novel is a confident step forward in an already bright career
