

A romantic scene featuring a man and a woman in an autumn setting. The man, with dark hair and a beard, is wearing a brown and tan plaid shirt. He is leaning over the woman, his face close to hers. The woman has blonde hair and is wearing a dark top; she is lying down with her head tilted back, looking up at him. They are surrounded by a thick layer of fallen autumn leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and brown. The background shows more trees with colorful foliage under a bright sky.

Ritchie,2021-05-11 A human and global take on a beloved vacation spot The crash of surf smell of salted air wet whorls of sand underfoot These are the sensations of the beach that environment that has drawn humans to its life sustaining shores for millennia And while the gull s cry and the cove s splendor have remained constant throughout time our relationship with the beach has been as fluid as the runnels left behind by the tide s turning The Lure of the Beach is a chronicle of humanity s history with the coast taking us from the seaside pleasure palaces of Roman elites and the aquatic rituals of medieval pilgrims to the venues of modern resort towns and beyond Robert C Ritchie traces the contours of the material and social economies of the beach throughout time covering changes in the social status of beach goers the technology of transport and the development of fashion from nudity to Victorianism and back again as well as the geographic spread of modern beach going from England to France across the Mediterranean and from nineteenth century America to the world And as climate change and rising sea levels erode the familiar faces of our coasts we are poised for a contemporary reckoning with our relationship and responsibilities to our beaches and their ecosystems The Lure of the Beach demonstrates that whether as a commodified pastoral destination a site of ecological resplendency or a flashpoint between private ownership and public access the history of the beach is a human one that deserves to be told now more than ever before

Can Will convince Patsy they belong together, or will she follow her dreams?

Capitalizing on Love A.B. Proebstel, He's expanding his empire. Her life's passion is helping people. When he accepts a ride along on his business flight, will the kindness ignite a spark in his heart? Markson Rothschild is a venture capitalist. So when the wealthy Southern boy takes to the air for the short hop between Atlanta and Sevierville, Tennessee, he doesn't reveal his true identity to his passenger. But after his jet crashes in the wilderness of the Great Smoky Mountains, he finds himself guided by this capable beauty who looks nothing like an outdoorswoman. Nichole Childress has found her calling as a traveling nurse. But her ambitious career comes to a crashing halt when her father falls ill, and his business is stolen. And when she calls in some favors for speedy transportation home, she's forced to employ her survivalist skills with the hunky city boy pilot when they find themselves on foot, running for their lives to escape a madman living in the backwoods. Though Markson strikes a fast friendship with the hometown nurse, he struggles to keep his business deals secret while they hike treacherous terrain. And as Nichole does her best to protect her heart from a long-distance relationship, she can't help but feel that falling for the pilot has all the coordinates for happily ever after. Will this stranded couple find that together, their path to love is right in front of them?
