Academic Languaging Gisela Ernst-Slavit,Margo Gottlieb,2025-06-20 Rethink how academic languaging can transform content area teaching For years the teaching of content based academic language to multilingual learners has focused on formulas vocabulary lists and sentence patterns often sidelining students linguistic and cultural strengths Gisela Ernst Slavit and Margo Gottlieb address these challenges by embracing academic languaging an active collaborative student driven process Academic Languaging offers strategies to integrate language and content learning while fostering student engagement voice and agency Dedicated chapters on academic languaging for Language Arts Mathematics Social Studies and Science highlight the dimensions of disciplinary language for each subject and provide strategies for moving learning forward with multilingual learners Additional features include Stop and Think prompts to help educators connect new ideas with their instructional settings Prompts at the end of each chapter to encourage deeper thinking and application of the material Multilingual examples to mirror the varied classroom settings in the U S and beyond The ultimate resource for educators committed to empowering multilingual learners and fostering meaningful culturally sustaining education Academic Languaging ensures multilingual learners comprehend academic content and thrive as confident autonomous drivers of their own learning

The Visual Turn and the Transformation of the Textbook James A. LaSpina,2014-04-04 Is the emerging digital multimedia culture of today transforming the textbook or forever displacing it As new media of transmission enter the classroom the traditional textbook is now caught up in a dialogue reshaping the textual boundaries of the book and with it the traditional modes of cognition and learning which are bound more to language than to visual form Most of the important work in the past two decades in the field of curriculum has focused on the culture of the textbook A rich literature has evolved around textbooks as the traditional object of instructional activity This volume is an important contribution to this literature which focuses on the actual making of a textbook This design process serves as a metaphor that suggests new paradigms of learning and instruction in which text content is but one component in a multidimensional information space The Visual Turn is an exploration along the border of this new learning space transforming the traditional center of instruction in the classroom
