

Fruits of the Spirit

Galatians 5:22-23

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law."

Ephesians 3:17

"so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, 19 and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God."

Colossians 2:6-7

"Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, 7 rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving."

Give Us This Day Devotionals, Volume 3 Charles Erlandson, 2021-12-17 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina. Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind. Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts. Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament. Fr Charles writes for the whole person he's not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual's life but also to the life of the Church. At the end of each day's devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day's lesson. Each devotional concludes with a

Globalization in a Glass Malcolm F. Purinton, 2023-05-04 The spread of Pilsner beer from its inception in 1842 clearly shows the changes wrought by globalization in an age of empire Its rise was dependent not only on technological innovations and faster supply chains but also on the increased connectedness of the world and the political and economic structures of empire Drawing upon a wide range of archival sources from Europe the Americas and Sub Saharan Africa this study traces the spread of industrial beer brewing in Europe from the late 18th to the early 20th century to show how a single beer style became the global favourite through advances in science business and imperial power In highlighting the evolution of consumer tastes through changing hierarchical relationships between the British metropole and colonies as well as the evolution of business organizations and practices Globalization in a Glass contributes to ongoing debates about globalization empire and trade It argues that despite the might and power of the British Empire as a colonizing force the effects of globalization imperial trade networks and colonial migration led to the domination of the most popular Continental European style of beer the Pilsner over British style ales
