Refuge Denied The St Louis Passengers And The Holocaust:

Refuge Denied Sarah A. Ogilvie, Scott Miller, 2010-03-18 The ordeal of the refugee ship St Louis has become a symbol of the world's indifference to the plight of European Jewry on the eve of the Holocaust In the spring of 1939 more than nine hundred Jewish refugees boarded the St Louis in Hamburg Germany hoping to escape escalating oppression by the Nazi government Except for a small group that had special visas and was able to disembark in Havana the ship and its passengers were denied entry by Cuba and the United States Returning on an uncertain voyage to Europe the refugees eventually were accepted by four western European countries Other than the 288 sent to England most once again fell under the Nazi grip that closed upon continental Europe a year later Although the episode of the St Louis is well known the actual fates of the passengers once they disembarked slipped into historical obscurity Prompted by a former passenger's curiosity Sarah A Ogilvie and Scott Miller of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum set out to discover what happened to each of the 937 passengers Their investigation spanning ten years and half the globe took them to unexpected places and produced surprising results

Nazi Germany, Canadian Responses L. Ruth Klein, 2012-05-23 It has been thirty years since the publication of Irving Abella and Harold Troper's seminal work None is Too Many which documented the official barriers that kept Jewish immigrants and refugees out of Canada in the shadow of the Second World War The book won critical acclaim but a haunting question remained Why did Canada act as it did in the 1930s and 1940s Answering this question requires a deeper understanding of the attitudes ideas and information that circulated in Canadian society during this period How much did Canadians know at the time about the horrors unfolding against the Jews of Europe Where did their information come from And how did they respond on both public and institutional levels to the events that marked Hitler's march to power the 1935 Nuremberg Race Laws the 1936 Olympics Kristallnacht and the crisis of the MS St Louis The contributors to this collection scholars of international repute turn to the wider public sphere for answers to the media the world of literature the university campus the realm of international sport and networks of community activism Their findings reveal that the persecutions and atrocities taking place in Nazi Germany inspired a range of responses from ordinary Canadians from indifference to outrage to quiet acquiescence It is challenging to recreate the mindset of more than seventy years ago Yet this collection takes up that challenge digging deeper into archives records and testimonies that can offer fresh interpretations of this dark period The answer to the question why begins here Contributors include Doris Bergen Chancellor Rose and Ray Wolfe Chair in Holocaust Studies University of Toronto Richard Menkis Department of History University of British Columbia Harold Troper Department of Theory and Policy Studies in Education OISE University of Toronto Amanda Grzyb Faculty of Information and Media Studies University of Western Ontario Rebecca Margolis Centre for Canadian Jewish Studies University of Ottawa Michael Brown Department of Languages Literatures and
