Radio Free Dixie, Second Edition Timothy B. Tyson, 2020-01-28 This classic book tells the remarkable story of Robert F Williams 1925 1996 one of the most influential black activists of the generation that toppled Jim Crow and forever altered the arc of American history In the late 1950s Williams as president of the Monroe North Carolina branch of the NAACP and his followers used machine guns dynamite and Molotov cocktails to confront Klan terrorists Advocating armed self reliance Williams challenged not only white supremacists but also Martin Luther King Jr and the civil rights establishment Forced to flee during the 1960s to Cuba where he broadcast Radio Free Dixie a program of black politics and music that could be heard as far away as Los Angeles and New York City and then to China Williams remained a controversial figure for the rest of his life Radio Free Dixie reveals that nonviolent civil rights protest and armed resistance movements grew out of the same soil confronted the same predicaments and reflected the same quest for African American freedom As Robert Williams s story demonstrates independent black political action black cultural pride and armed self reliance operated in the South in tension and in tandem with legal efforts and nonviolent protest A Consuming Faith Susan Curtis,2001 In A Consuming Faith Susan Curtis analyzes the startling convergence of two events previously treated independently the emergence of a modern consumer oriented culture and the rise of the social gospel movement By examining the lives and works of individuals who identified themselves as social gospellers rather than just groups or individuals who fit a particular definition Curtis is able to capture the very fluidity of the term social gospel as it was used In addition to exploring the time in which the movement took shape Curtis provides biographical sketches of traditional figures involved in various aspects of the social gospel movement such as Walter Rauschenbusch Washington Gladden and Josiah Strong alongside those of less prominent figures like Charles Jefferson Elizabeth Stuart Phelps and Charles Macfarland Going beyond their roles in the movement Curtis shows them to be sons and daughters husbands and wives and workers and citizens who experienced the vast changes in their world wrought by industrialization and class conflict even as they sought to define a meaningful religious life The result of their quest was a redefinition of Protestantism that contributed to an evolving public discourse and culture This groundbreaking study now with a new preface by Curtis provides an illuminating look at culture and religion as interdependent influences and treats religious life as an integral part of American culture not a sacred world apart from the secular A Consuming Faith will be of interest to anyone who strives to understand not only the social and cultural history of America in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries but also the origins of modern America RECKONING Ronan James Cassidy,2023-09-08 THE REDEMPTION SERIES 100 years after Margaret Anne transformed an American family comes the profound 4 part finale to the Calhoun saga BOOK THREE Reckoning Sacrifice birthed the unsettled world of Margaret Anne Now only surrender can pave the way for closure As Matthew s harrowing and highly anticipated journey to deliver the Spanish Cross into the hands of his estranged son reaches its climactic conclusion the one who has been ordained to fulfill the ancient promise of the often maligned and unjustly persecuted Miss Margaret Anne Basseterre is revealed Reckoning portrays the troubled life of Matthew s son David Michael Sonneman From his tragic and destitute beginnings which are sparingly revealed in Angel Ascending the story of David s life including the true nature of his trials and tribulations and his sacred mission is brought into focus in this scintillating and thought provoking third book of the Redemption Series When David ultimately discovers that his earthly salvation from that darkened basement in Baltimore was something far different than what he had always supposed he is forced to reconsider his lifelong desire to avenge those wrongs that were served upon him at least those wrongs that he understood as a young child He must decide between his developing faith which accompanies his hope for a better tomorrow and those deeply entrenched desires to put an end to those responsible for the worst of his childhood afflictions when the true story of his life is made known to him
