GUIDED READING Reforming the Industrial World

A. Determining Main Ideas As you read about the age of reforms, take notes to answer the questions about the ideas of the philosophers and reformers of the Industrial Revolution.

The Economic Philosophers	What were the basic ideas of each philosopher?
1. Adam Smith	He thought that economic liberty guaranteed economic progress. Government should not interfere the economy.
2. Thomas Malthus	Population are increasing more rapidly than food supply, and people were becoming poor.
3. David Ricardo	He believed that a permanent underclass will always be poor. Wages will decrease as population increase.

The Social Reformers	How did each reformer try to correct the ills of industrialization?
4. John Stuart Mill	Mill wished to help working people with policies that would lead to a more equal division of profits.
5. Robert Owen	He improved the working condition for his employees, and created a nice living place in in New Harmony.
6. Charles Fourier and Henri de Saint-Simon	They had the idea of socialism which the factors of production are owned by the public.
7. Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels	He introduced a radical type of socialism called Marxism, and predicted that the workers will overthrow the owners.
8. William Wilberforce	He led the fight of abolition to end the slave trade in Britain.
9. Jane Addams	She ran settlement houses to help the poor in the united states.
10. Horace Mann	He was one of the most prominent us reformers, she favored free education for children.

Reforming The Industrial World Guided Answers:

Industrial World ,1914 Reforming the Workplace Joseph Rees,2016-11-11 Government regulatory agencies are too often tangled webs of bureaucracy fraught with internal politics and in conflict with both industries and individuals How to instigate and implement the needed reform is a timely issue that is currently being debated Reforming the Workplace is an account of a successful program that is now a model for nationwide improvements in various regulatory agencies Joseph Rees s focus is the Occupational Safety and Health Administration OSHA which in 1982 announced a major shift in policy from strict government regulation to self regulation by industries with proven safety records In California this resulted in the Cooperative Compliance Program CCP an arrangement among labor unions management and California OSHA that became responsible for overseeing safety regulations at seven large construction sites throughout the state In his detailed study of the CCP Joseph Rees provides important empirical data and assesses the reasons the program succeeded That success is so important he demonstrates because the CCP represents a different approach to reform self regulation that can be extended to and tailored for many troubled agencies Reforming the Workplace is a comprehensive study that will be a valuable resource for scholars and students of law and social policy in general and of federal regulation policies in particular
