

An aerial photograph of a wide, crowded street in an African city. A large crowd of people is gathered on the street, many holding colorful umbrellas in shades of blue, yellow, and red. The street is flanked by various buildings, including a large, modern-looking building on the right and a building with a balcony on the left. The sky is overcast. The title 'REFRAMING CONTEMPORARY AFRICA' is overlaid on the top of the image, with 'REFRAMING CONTEMPORARY' in yellow and 'AFRICA' in large red letters. Below the title, the subtitle 'Politics, Culture, and Society in the Global Era' is written in white. At the bottom, the editors' names 'Peyi Soyinka-Airewele and Rita Kiki Edozie' are listed, followed by 'EDITORS' in smaller letters.

Reframing Contemporary Africa:

Reframing Contemporary Africa Peyi Soyinka-Airewele, Rita Kiki Edozie, 2010-01-19 It is impossible to study Africa without understanding the debate about how to study Africa At last a book showcases the complexities and paradoxes of Africa's recent and more distant history while avoiding simplistic Eurocentric conceptualizations of black Africa With this book Peyi Soyinka Airewele and Rita Kiki Edozie offer students the background and perspectives they need to comprehend the dynamics of the continent as well as a clear path through the current literature and scholarly debate With a cross disciplinary approach that features political historical and economic analysis as well as popular culture and sociological views on contemporary issues Reframing Contemporary Africa provides an unparalleled breadth of coverage Essays written by a distinguished and international group of scholars including William Ackah Pius Adesanmi Susan Craddock Caroline Elkins Siba Grovogui Mahmood Mamdani Mutua Makau Celestin Monga Wole Soyinka and Paul Tiyambe Zeleza are designed to distill original scholarship for undergraduate readers Each contribution helps students engage with the work and arguments of luminaries while exposing them to renowned African thinkers Contributors deliver analysis that allows students to see beyond the clichés commonly presented in the media and even in scholarship and helpful section openers by Soyinka Airewele and Edozie frame forthcoming chapters giving important thematic and historical context Reframing Contemporary Africa will certainly provoke new debate and reflection not merely about African issues and politics but also about the West and its framing of Africa

African Indigenous Knowledges in a Postcolonial World Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, Ngozi Nwogwugwu, Gift Ntiwunka, 2020-11-29 This book argues that ancient and modern African indigenous knowledges remain key to Africa's role in global capital technological and knowledge development and to addressing her marginality and postcoloniality The contributors engage the unresolved problematics of the historical and contemporary linkages between African knowledges and the African academy and between African and global knowledges The book relies on historical and comparative political analysis to explore the global context for the application of indigenous knowledges for tackling postcolonial challenges of knowledge production conflict and migration and women's rights on the continent in transcontinental African contexts Asserting the enduring potency of African indigenous knowledges for the transformation of policy the African academy and the study of Africa in the global academy this book will be of interest to scholars of African Studies postcolonial studies and decolonisation and global affairs

Interdisciplinary Approaches to Human Rights Rajini Srikanth, Elora Halim Chowdhury, 2018-10-30 Interdisciplinary Approaches to Human Rights History Politics Practice is an edited collection that brings together analyses of human rights work from multiple disciplines Within the academic sphere this book will garner interest from scholars who are invested in human rights as a field of study as well as those who research and are engaged in the praxis of human rights Referring to the historical and cross cultural study of human rights the volume engages with disciplinary debates in political philosophy gender and women's studies Global South Third World studies international relations psychology and anthropology At the same time the authors employ diverse methodologies including oral history theoretical and discourse analysis ethnography and literary and cinema studies Within the field of human rights studies this book attends to the critical academic gap on interdisciplinary and praxis based approaches to the field as opposed to a predominantly legalistic focus drawing from case studies from a wide range of contexts in the Global South including Bangladesh Colombia Haiti India Mexico Palestine and Sudan as well as from Australia and the United States in the Global North For students who will go on to become researchers practitioners policy makers and activists this collection of essays will demonstrate the multifaceted landscape of human rights and the multiple forces philosophical political cultural economic historical that affect it

Transatlantic Relations and Modern Diplomacy Sudeshna Roy, Dana Cooper, Brian Murphy, 2013-12-17 This book explores the transatlantic relationship between the US and Europe from multiple perspectives and disciplines Since the end of the Cold War a multi polar world has replaced the dual power economic and political stranglehold previously shared by the US and Russia Amid the shift in power politics the transatlantic partnership between the US and Europe has retained its importance in shaping the outcome of future global developments With the rise of the US as a major world power and the tremendous economic growths witnessed by countries such as China India and Brazil the political power structures within and outside the transatlantic relations have gradually undergone shifts that are important to recognise understand and critically assess on a consistent basis Transatlantic Relations and Modern Diplomacy assesses the strengths and weaknesses of this enduring transatlantic relationship from multiple perspectives and disciplines at a time when the US and European countries are facing increasing economic pressures significant political changes and substantial security concerns Examining this relationship through a range of different lenses including historical economic and cultural this book highlights the importance of examining the transatlantic relationship from a variety of different contextual and historical perspectives in order to herald the future changes as informed global citizens This book will be of interest to students of transatlantic studies diplomacy political science and IR in general

Gender and Peacebuilding Maureen P. Flaherty, Thomas G. Matyók, Sean Byrne, Hamdesa Tusso, 2015-10-16 The twenty first century has brought with it a shift from the notion of human security being located in secure national borders to the need to secure the safety freedom and dignity of all Despite efforts to equalize women s status in the world evidenced by changes in many international projects requiring a gender focus women and men experience most of the world in very different ways according to gender Further the reality is that humans who do not all fall neatly into one of these categories male or female often find their lives further challenged In the 1980s Peace and Conflict Studies first began to acknowledge and study the different experiences males and females have during war and peace Since then there have been books about women and war women working at grassroots levels to build peace women and transitional justice women and peace education and women s views of human security All of these works have contributed to the discourse of our changing world This book brings together

some of those themes and voices and adds more with the final product being more than the sum of its parts We add to the conversation a book that considers foundational fundamental issues that span from the interpersonal to the global Many of the chapters describe empirical research completed with author and community shared here for the first time Part One is a collection of case studies documenting challenges and responses to peacebuilding by women from various parts of the world Part Two focuses on Peace and Conflict Studies PACS as a discipline examining not only what is but also what should be taught This section critiques today s efforts at teaching Peace and Conflict Studies and provides suggestions of how this important work might be shared in more open and equitable ways Part Three enters territory found even less in the PACS literature In this section our authors confront patriarchy engage in a discussion about the contribution queer theory makes to PACS and tussle with the notion of inclusivity with considerations of both gender and disability It then ends with a discussion about the contribution feminist methodologies make to PACS

Decolonisation after Democracy Laurence

Piper,2020-05-21 Decolonisation after Democracy addresses the provocative idea that we need to rid higher education of lingering forms of colonial knowledge This matters because in the colonial era much knowledge was put to the service of subjugating indigenous peoples and the assumptions from this era may linger into the present Examples of deep rooted and foundational forms of knowledge that carry colonial traits are normative binaries such as civilised and backward modern and traditional and rational and superstitious In addition some accounts of positive values like freedom equality justice and democracy may hide the assumption that the western experience is the norm from which other kinds are rendered imitations deviations or pathologies In this collection some of South Africa s leading political scientists and academics engage with the challenge of decolonising knowledge in the research and teaching of politics It includes new insights about the state international relations clientelism statesociety relations and land reform and introduces new ways to engage the colonial library curriculum reform and the marginality of historically black institutions Finally the contributors deal with the decolonial challenge posed by the FeesMustFall student movements reflecting on issues of revolutionary politics and gender and sexual violence This book was originally published as a special issue of Politikon

Japan-Africa Relations T.

Lumumba-Kasongo,2010-04-26 Japan Africa Relations seeks to study the complex nature of the dynamics of power relations between Japan and Africa since the Bandung Conference in 1955 with an emphasis on the period starting from the 1970s up to the present

The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan,Patrick Ukata,2018-10-18 The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics offers a comprehensive analysis of Nigeria s very rich history and ever changing politics to its readers It provides a deep understanding of Nigeria s socio political evolution and experience by covering broad range of political issues and historical eras The volume encompasses 44 chapters organized thematically into essays covering history political institutions civil society economic and social policy identity and insecurity and Nigeria in a globalized world By identifying many of the classic debates in Nigerian politics the chapters serve as an authoritative introduction to Africa s most populous

The Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics Célestin Monga, Justin Yifu Lin, 2015-07-02 For a long time economic research on Africa was not seen as a profitable venture intellectually or professionally few researchers in top ranked institutions around the world chose to become experts in the field This was understandable the reputation of Africa centered economic research was not enhanced by the well known limitations of economic data across the continent Moreover development economics itself was not always fashionable and the broader discipline of economics has had its ups and downs and has been undergoing a major identity crisis because it failed to predict the Great Recession Times have changed many leading researchers including a few Nobel laureates have taken the subject of Africa and economics seriously enough to devote their expertise and creativity to it They have been amply rewarded the richness complexities and subtleties of African societies civilizations rationalities and ways of living have helped renew the humanities and the social sciences and economics in particular to the point that the continent has become the next major intellectual frontier to researchers from around the world In collecting some of the most authoritative statements about the science of economics and its concepts in the African context this handbook the first of two volumes opens up the diverse acuity of commentary on exciting topics and in the process challenges and stimulates the quest for knowledge Wide ranging in its scope themes language and approaches this volume explores examines and assesses economic thinking on Africa and Africa's contribution to the discipline The editors bring a set of powerful resources to this endeavor most notably a team of internationally renowned economists whose diverse viewpoints are complemented by the perspectives of philosophers political scientists and anthropologists

The Abongo Abroad John V. Clune, 2017-07-19 Blending African social history with US foreign relations John V Clune documents how ordinary people experienced a major aspect of Cold War diplomacy The book describes how military sponsored international travel especially military training abroad and United Nations peacekeeping deployments in the Sinai and Lebanon altered Ghanaian service members and their families during the three decades after independence in 1957 Military assistance to Ghana included sponsoring training and education in the United States and American policymakers imagined that national modernization would result from the personal relationships Ghanaian service members and their families would forge As an act of faith American military assistance policy with Ghana remained remarkably consistent despite little evidence that military education and training in the United States produced any measurable results Merging newly discovered documents from Ghana's armed forces and declassified sources on American military assistance to Africa this work argues that military sponsored travel made individual Ghanaians' outlooks on the world more international just as military assistance planners hoped they would but the Ghanaian state struggled to turn that new identity into political or economic progress

When Helping Works Michael Bamwesigye Badriaki,2017-05-03 Today people from various parts of the world who are interested in helping fellow human beings impacted by famine epidemics wars and poverty are uniquely positioned They are interconnected due to globalization s impact which also has implications for intercultural work and global missions The ability to help people is a constructive asset which calls for the need to build friendships and partnerships across the globe Helping well depends on a number of factors yet this book looks into the impact of stereotype threat and its effects on intercultural identities the perceptions of others and performance in intercultural missions Human interactions continue to suffer due to fears anxious reactions about confirming negative stereotypes about a person s identity abilities and effectiveness in global missions Stereotype threat happens when caricatures and negative understandings about people s identities are invoked

The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba,Toyin Falola,2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues

The Decolonial Politics and Philosophy of Ngugi wa Thiong'o Brian Sibanda,2024-11-18 The Decolonial Politics and Philosophy of Ngugi wa Thiong o offers a critical analysis of Ngugi wa Thiong o epistemic journey from a communalist communist nationalist post colonial theorist and ultimately an established decolonial spokesperson of the Global South in the league of Paulo Freire Edward Said and Frantz Fanon Through a reading of his novels and essays this book provides insight into wa Thiong o s decolonial thought that was established within his overarching philosophy and later became the organizing idea for wa Thiong o s political activism Brian Sibanda presents wa Thiong o as an example of a philosopher within the Global South who has unmasked coloniality shining light where Eurocentrism has cast darkness This book offers a fresh perspective for scholars and readers interested in decolonial theory and African philosophy

Media, Conflict and Peacebuilding in Africa Jacinta Maweu,Admire Mare,2021-03-29 This book explores the role and place of popular traditional and digital media platforms in the mediatization representation and performance of various conflicts and peacebuilding interventions in the African context The role of the media in conflict is often depicted as either good as symbolized by peace journalism or bad as exemplified by war journalism but this book moves beyond this binary to highlight the in between role that the media often plays in times of conflict The volume does not only focus on the relationship between mass media conflict and peacebuilding processes but it broadens its scope by critically analysing the dynamic and emergent roles of popular and digital media platforms in a continent where the semi literate and oral communities still rely heavily on popular communication platforms to get news and information Whilst social media platforms have been hailed for their assumed democratic and digital dividends this book does not only focus on these positive aspects but also shines a light on dark forms of participation which are fuelling racial gender ethnic political and religious conflicts in highly polarized and stratified societies Highlighting the many ways in which traditional digital and popular media can be used to both escalate conflicts and promote peacebuilding this volume will be a useful resource for students researchers and civil society groups interested in peace and conflict studies journalism and media studies in different contexts within Africa

China in the Global South Theodor Tudoroiu,Anna Kuteleva,2022-04-23 This book scrutinizes the frequently ignored agency of Global South sub national actors in their interactions with China using a multidisciplinary approach and eleven case studies Contributors examine China s presence in the Global South on a country by country basis analyzing how various non state and sub state actors are responding to the rise of China and whether they are attracted by the cooperation models that China proposes or deterred by its new assertiveness Contributions cover diverse and heterogeneous geographies of the Global South ranging from Papua New Guinea to Argentina and from Madagascar to the Russian Far East Examining such diverse cases contributors focus on two interrelated questions What is the actual economic political and social impact of China s growing presence in the Global South And critically how do the citizens of the Global South understand and interpret China s rise Taken together the case studies develop a comprehensive picture of a complex and sometimes problematic process of China s inclusion into the economic social and political realities of the Global South This book identifies and fills the gaps in the existing literature on China s rise by offering a nuanced perspective on China s relations with the countries of the Global South that captures such variables as social context intersubjective meanings and identities By focusing China s relations with the Global South it also provides an important addition to the literature on international politics of development and China s role in the transformation of the South South cooperation
