Regional Convention Notebooks For Kids 2014:

Throw Your Voice Meghanne Barker, 2024-08-15 Throw Your Voice is a story of loss and recovery. It relates how children placed in a temporary care institution make sense of their situations. Moving between a Kazakhstan government children's home Hope House and the Almaty State Puppet Theater, Meghanne Barker shows how children and puppets as proxies bring to life ideologies of childhood and visions of a rosy future. Sites and stories run in parallel. Framed by the narrative of Anton Chekhov's Kashtanka about a lost dog taken in by a kind stranger, the author follows the story's staging at the puppet theater. At Hope House, children find themselves on a path similar to Kashtanka, dislodged from their first homes to reside in a second. The heart of this story is about living in displacement and about the fragile intimacies achieved amidst conditions of missing. Whether due to war, migration, or pandemic, people get separated from those closest to them. Throw Your Voice examines how strangers become familiar and how objects mediate precarious ties. She shows how people use fantasy to mitigate loss.

SADC Gender Protocol 2014 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Dube, Sifiso, 2014-10-25 In August 2008, Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground-breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development. This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance. By the 2013 Heads of State summit, 13 countries had signed and 12 countries had ratified the SADC Gender Protocol. The Protocol is now in force. With one year to go, time is ticking to 2015 when governments need to have achieved 28 targets for the attainment of gender equality. In keeping with the Alliance slogan 'Yes we must', this 2014 Barometer provides a wealth of updated data against which progress will be measured by all those who cherish democracy in the region. The world and SADC is also looking to the future with the post-2015 agenda. Now is the time to strengthen, resolve, reconsider, reposition and re-strategise for 2030.

The Rights of the Child in a Changing World Olga Cvejić Jančić, 2015-11-17 This book deals with the implementation of the rights of the child as enshrined in the Convention on the Rights of the Child in 21 countries from Europe, Asia, Australia, and the USA. It gives an overview of the legal status of children regarding their most salient rights, such as the implementation of the best interest principle, the right of the child to know about his/her origin, the right to be heard, to give medical consent, the right of the child in the field of employment, religious education of children, prohibition of physical punishment, protection of the child through deprivation of parental rights, and in the case of inter-country adoption. In the last 25 years since the Convention on the Rights of the Child was adopted, many States Parties to the Convention have made great efforts to pass legislation regulating the rights of the child in their commitment to the improvement of the legal status of the child. However, is that enough for any child to live better, safer, and healthier? What are the practical effects of this international as well as many national instruments in the everyday life of children? Have there been any outcomes in terms of improvement of their status around the world and improvement of the conditions under which they live since the Convention entered into force? In tackling these questions, this work presents a comparative overview of the implementation of the Convention and evaluates the results achieved Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Young Children in the World and Their Rights Adrijana Višnjić-Jevtić, Alicja R. Sadownik, Ingrid Engdahl, 2021-04-20 This book provides different perspectives on the concept of children's rights including policy educational and children's perspectives It examines how the crucial ideas of the Convention on the Rights of the Child are respected and implemented in 14 countries in five regions of the world It looks at early childhood education children's participatory rights and at how these rights are promoted and guaranteed in different countries It explores the professional practice of education and its complexities challenges and dilemmas as well as the role of play and of listening and participation The book advocates children's rights today arguing for its vital importance in the best interests of the children In doing so it furthers the understanding of children's rights and spreads knowledge about the Convention as a means of celebrating its 30th anniversary The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child UNCRC comprises the potential to change the lives of children to the very best It may exalt children from the position of marginalized citizens to the centre of policies all over the world Even though the concept of children's rights is omnipresent the respect for children's rights must be discussed While the Convention brings the new perspective of children as citizens to the world there are still challenges in its application The book interrogates challenges in understanding and applying children rights and offers possible answers to these challenges The ratification process itself does not guarantee that children's rights are respected While all adults should take responsibility for implementing the UNCRC in everyday life Early Childhood Education should give opportunities for children to learn and live their rights Contemporary legal issues in the southeast asian region Steve Ngo, Jose I. dela Rama, Jr., Yanti Fristikawati, Ratnaria Wahid, Nik Muhammad Syaamil Nik Ismail, Kenny Manurung, Mary Kimberlie C. Raising a Nation Elliot Haspel, 2025 Thanks to a history of neglect child care in America is expensive scarce and of questionable quality Yet too often the response is not a push for governmental action but a derisive why should I pay for your child At best our leaders make the case for child care on bloodless economic grounds we need a place to put the kids so parents can work The problem I believe is that we skipped a step a step so fundamental that it has torpedoed the chances of winning an effective child care system despite decade after decade of pain that crosses geographic and ideological borders We have never established that good child care belongs among the pantheon of American values Because of what it means for the nation that is exactly where child care belongs Raising A Nation offers a new framework for thinking about a comprehensive inclusive child care system one that supports families in all their diversity whether they want to utilize a licensed child care program family member or have a parent be the primary child care provider I posit 10 distinct yet interlinking cases for why every American whatever their political affiliation and whether or not they have young children or any children at all has skin in the game when it comes to the country s child care system This groundbreaking book opens up conversations that can finally push child care from being seen as a private responsibility to being seen as an essential part of the American social fabric Provided by publisher
