Stopping the Spies Jane Duncan, 2018-06-01 Is South Africa on its way to becoming a surveillance state and will it need a whistleblower In 2013 former National Security Agency NSA contractor Edward Snowden leaked secret documents revealing that state agencies like the NSA had spied on the communications of millions of innocent citizens International outrage resulted but the Snowden documents revealed only the tip of the surveillance iceberg Apart from insisting on their rights to tap into communications more and more states are placing citizens under surveillance tracking their movements and transactions with public and private institutions The state is becoming like a one way mirror where it can see more of what its citizens do and say while citizens see less and less of what the state does owing to high levels of secrecy around surveillance In this book Jane Duncan assesses the relevance of Snowden s revelations for South Africa In doing so she questions the extent to which South Africa is becoming a surveillance society governed by a surveillance state Duncan challenges members of civil society to be concerned about and to act on the ever expanding surveillance capacities of the

South African state Is surveillance used for the democratic purpose of making people safer or is it being used for the repressive purpose of social control especially of those considered to be politically threatening to ruling interests She explores the forms of collective action needed to ensure that unaccountable surveillance does not take place and examines what does and does not work when it comes to developing organised responses Collective Creativity for Responsible and Sustainable Business Practice Fields, Ziska, 2016-11-17 Over the years irresponsible business practices have resulted in industrial waste which is negatively impacting the environment As a result it is imperative to develop new solutions to reverse the damage Collective Creativity for Responsible and Sustainable Business Practice is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on the elimination of environmental degradation through new discoveries and opportunities provided by collective creativity Featuring extensive coverage across a range of relevant perspective and topics such as sustainable business model innovation social marketing and education and business co operatives this comprehensive and timely publication is an essential reference source for business leaders managers academics and community leaders seeking current research on sustainable management practices The World of Science Education Femi S.

Otulaja, Meshach B. Ogunniyi, 2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next Strengthening Electoral

Integrity Pippa Norris, 2017-08-29 Today a general mood of pessimism surrounds Western efforts to strengthen elections and democracy abroad If elections are often deeply flawed or even broken in many countries around the world can anything be done to fix them To counter the prevailing ethos Pippa Norris presents new evidence for why programs of international electoral assistance work She evaluates the effectiveness of several practical remedies including efforts designed to reform electoral laws strengthen women s representation build effective electoral management bodies promote balanced campaign communications regulate political money and improve voter registration Pippa Norris argues that it would be a tragedy to undermine progress by withdrawing from international engagement Instead the international community needs to learn the lessons of what works best to strengthen electoral integrity to focus activities and resources upon the most effective programs and to innovate after a quarter century of efforts to strengthen electoral integrity
