The School Journal ,1912    The Academy and Literature ,1904    The Athenaeum ,1885    Science Fiction and Fantasy Book Review Neil Barron, R. Reginald, 2009-11-01 Science Fiction Fantasy Book Review was founded in 1979 to provide comprehensive coverage of all the major and minor books being released in the genre at that time This was the golden era of SF publishing with a thousand titles old and new hitting the stands and the bookshelves each and every year From the older classics to the newest speculative fiction this was the period when the best and the brightest shined forth their talents SF FBR included reviews by writers in the field by amateur critics and by litterateurs and University professors Over a thousand books were covered during the single year of publication many of them having been reviewed no where else before or since The January 1980 issue includes a comprehensive index of all the works featured during the preceding year This reprint will be a welcome addition to the literature of science fiction and fantasy criticism Neil Barron is a retired bibliographer and literary critic editor of the acclaimed Anatomy of Wonder series Robert Reginald was the publisher for twenty five years of Borgo Press and has authored over 110 books of his own    Century Path ,1904    Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1855    Christian Advocate ,1927    The Literary panorama ,1810    The Red Countess Hermynia Zur Mühlen, 2018-08-20 Praise for the first edition of this book This translation is something of an event For the first time it makes Zur Mühlen's text available to English speaking readers in a reliable version David Midgley University of Cambridge This book represents exceptional value both as an enjoyable read and as an introduction to an attractive author who amply deserves rediscovery Ritchie Robertson Journal of European Studies 42 1 106 07 Born into a distinguished aristocratic family of the old Habsburg Empire Hermynia Zur Mühlen spent much of her childhood and early youth travelling in Europe and North Africa with her diplomat father Never comfortable with the traditional roles women were expected to play she broke as a young adult both with her family and after five years on his estate in the old Czarist Russia with her German Junker husband and set out as an independent free thinking individual earning a precarious living as a writer Zur Mühlen translated over 70 books from English French and Russian into German notably the novels of Upton Sinclair which she turned into best sellers in Germany produced a series of detective novels under a pseudonym wrote seven engaging and thought provoking novels of her own six of which were translated into English contributed countless insightful short stories and articles to newspapers and magazines and having become a committed socialist achieved international renown in the 1920s with her Fairy Tales for Workers Children which were widely translated including into Chinese and Japanese Because of her fervent and outspoken opposition to National Socialism she and her life long Jewish partner Stefan Klein had to flee first Germany where they had settled and then in 1938 her native Austria They found refuge in England where Zur Mühlen died forgotten and virtually penniless in 1951    T.P.'s Weekly ,1905    The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1907

American Publishers' Circular and Literary Gazette ,1856      Round Table ,1867      The Athenæum ,1845

Charlotte Lennox Norbert Schürer,2012-02-09 This volume compiles and annotates for the first time the complete correspondence of the eighteenth century British author Charlotte Lennox best known for her novel The Female Quixote Lennox corresponded with famous contemporaries from different walks of life such as James Boswell David Garrick Samuel Johnson and Sir Joshua Reynolds and she interacted with many other influential figures including her patroness the Countess of Bute publisher Andrew Millar and the Reverend Thomas Winstanley In addition to Lennox's and her correspondents letters this book presents related documents such as the author's proposals for subscription editions of her works her file with the Royal Literary Fund and a series of poems and stories supposedly composed by her son but perhaps written by herself In these carefully and extensively annotated documents Charlotte Lennox traces the vagaries in the career of a female writer in the male dominated eighteenth century literary marketplace The introduction situates Lennox in the context of contemporaneous print culture and specifically examines the contentious question of the authorship of The Female Quixote Lennox's experimentation with various forms of publication and her appeals for charity to the Royal Literary Fund when she was impoverished towards the end of her life The author who emerges from Charlotte Lennox was an active assertive innovative and independent woman trying to find her place and make a literary career in eighteenth century Britain Thus this volume makes an important contribution to the history of female authorship literary history and eighteenth century studies
