Ralf Roßkopf, Katharina Heilmann

New Courses At Makerere Unniversity 2015 2016:

Authentic University Lawrence Muganga Ph.D.,2022-08-22 Today s universities fail students leaving them stranded in an alien world that differs markedly from the ivory tower institution that ostensibly molded them for the future The Authentic University proposes to overcome the manifold shortcomings of the contemporary postsecondary school by offering an innovative education that corresponds to the realities of the modern era This university blends three distinct concepts of student centered education to provide students with a personalized learning experience that develops distinct skills and competencies required by today s employers Students can save time money and effort while learning the information and applications that they want and need Contained within the covers of this groundbreaking book lies a thorough description of everything that educational stakeholders must know about the Authentic University including supporting literature and practical models alongside strategies for planning and implementation The world has passed the university by and will not wait for education to keep pace with its ever evolving information and communication technology situated in an increasingly entrepreneurial economy We as educational stakeholders must meet the challenge of change in an urgent way The first step toward bringing the university into the modern era begins with this book the manual for a radically new type of education termed the Authentic University

Africa in the Twenty-First Century Gashawbeza Bekele,Adebayo Oyebadé,2018-12-04 This book interrogates contemporary debates controversies achievements challenges and future prospects of African development and democratization from varied theoretical perspectives The diverse issues and sub themes addressed in this volume include tenets of democracy such as democratization democratic institutions good governance term limits minority rights and women s political participation and dynamics of development such as economic growth liberalization development strategies and models Millennium Development Goals uneven regional development sustainable development challenges transport development and management and health and development Featuring established and emerging scholars this book is a vital resource for scholars policy makers and students interested in African politics and development

Humans and Lions Keith Somerville,2019-07-10 This book places lion conservation and the relationship between people and lions both in historical context and in the context of the contemporary politics of conservation in Africa The killing of Cecil the Lion in July 2015 brought such issues to the public s attention Were lions threatened in the wild and what was the best form of conservation How best can lions be saved from extinction in the wild in Africa amid rural poverty precarious livelihoods for local communities and an expanding human population This book traces man s relationship with lions through history from hominids to the Romans through colonial occupation and independence to the present day It concludes with an examination of the current crisis of conservation and the conflict between Western animal welfare concepts and sustainable development thrown into sharp focus by the killing of Cecil the lion Through this historical account Keith Somerville provides a coherent evidence based assessment of current human lion relations providing context to the present situation This book will be of interest to students and scholars of environmental and African history wildlife conservation environmental management and political ecology as well as the general reader Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University Kronstad Felde,Tor Halvorsen,2021-09-20 Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University is set against the backdrop of the spread of neoliberal ideas and reforms since the 1980s While accepting that these ideas are rooted in a longer history the authors reveal how neoliberalism has transformed the university sector and the academic profession In particular they focus on how understandings of what knowledge is relevant and how this is decided have changed Taken as a whole reforms have sought to reorient universities and academics towards economic development in various ways Shifts in how institutions and academics achieve recognition and status combined with the flow of public funds away from the universities and the increasing privatisation of educational services are steadily downgrading the value of public higher education As research universities adopt user and market oriented operating models and prioritise the demands of the corporate sector in their research agendas the sale of intellectual property is increasingly becoming a primary criterion for determining the relevance of academic knowledge All these changes have largely succeeded in transforming the discourse around the role of the academic profession in society In this context Makerere University in Uganda has been lauded as having successfully achieved transformation However far from highlighting the allegedly positive outcomes of this reform this book provides worrying insights into the dissolution of Ugandas academic culture Drawing on interviews with over ninety academics at Makerere University from deans to doctoral students the authors provide first hand accounts of the pressures and problems the reforms have created Disempowered overworked and under resourced many academics are forced to take on consultancy work to make ends meet The evidence presented here stands in stark contrast to the successes claimed by the university However as the authors also show local resistance to the neoliberal model is rising as academics begin to collaborate to regain control over what knowledge is considered relevant and wrestle with deepening democracy The authors careful expos of how neoliberalism devalues academic knowledge and the urgency of countering this trend makes Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University highly relevant for anyone working in higher education or involved in shaping policy for this sector Investing in Reproductive, Maternal, Newborn, Child, and Adolescent Health in Uganda

Elizabeth Asege Ekochu,Julia Mensah,Rogers Ayiko,Stephen Kitembe Kiirya,Brendan Michael Hayes,Collins Chansa,Richard Crabbe,Grace Murindwa,Marc DeFrancis,2024-03-22 In Uganda conditions in reproductive maternal newborn child and adolescent health RMNCAH remain the primary drivers of morbidity and mortality accounting for 60 percent of years of life lost The high burden of these conditions can be attributed to a poor quality of care resulting from inadequate financial human and material resources compounded by weak multisectoral coordination Moreover the country s high population growth rate and a young population imply that RMNCAH service delivery will continue to dominate health sector reforms

even with the increasing prevalence of noncommunicable and infectious diseases Over the past two decades Uganda has focused on improving the quality of RMNCAH service delivery leading to declines in the maternal infant and under five mortality ratios and the increased use of modern contraception among married women However the neonatal mortality and teenage pregnancy rates have stagnated and the low civil registration of births and deaths remains challenging Investing in Reproductive Maternal Newborn Child and Adolescent Health in Uganda What Have We Learned and Where Do We Go from Here comprises 12 studies conducted as part of the RMNCAH Operational Research Program drafted between 2019 and 2021 and finalized and disseminated in October 2022 across 45 districts of Uganda with funding from Sweden and the World Bank These studies underscore important lessons learned and offer suggestions for enhancing the delivery of RMNCAH interventions Each chapter represents one study and discusses service delivery the health workforce financing health information systems and governance and leadership Two appendixes summarize key findings and recommendations and explain the roles of key stakeholders in the RMNCAH Operational Research Program

Universities and the Occult Rituals of the Corporate World Felicity Wood, 2018-04-17 Universities and the Occult Rituals of the Corporate World explores the metaphorical parallels between corporatised market oriented universities and aspects of the occult In the process the book shows that the forms of mystery mythmaking and ritual now common in restructured institutions of higher education stem from their new power structures and procedures and the economic and sociopolitical factors that have generated them Wood argues that universities have acquired occult aspects as the beliefs and practices underpinning present day market driven academic discourse and practice weave spells of corporate potency invoking the bewildering magic of the market and the arcane mysteries of capitalism thriving on equivocation and evasion Making particular reference to South African universities the book demonstrates the ways in which apparently rational features of contemporary Western and westernised societies have acquired occult aspects It also includes discussion of higher education institutions in other countries where neoliberal economic agendas are influential such as the UK the USA the Eurozone states and Australia Providing a unique and thought provoking look at the impact of the marketisation of Higher Education this book will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of higher education educational policy and neoliberalism It should also be of great interest to academics in the fields of anthropology folklore and cultural studies as well as business economics and management

s innovation performance in recent years has consistently outpaced other low income and Sub Saharan African countries Though encouraging this nascent progress will only benefit the broader Ugandan population if policy makers address specific constraints in the innovation systems of the critical agri food sector which is hampered by low productivity and profitability In this report we explore these constraints using an agricultural value chains framework with particular focus on the Robusta Coffee Planting Material Pipeline and tropical fruit processing

Research Universities in Africa Nico Cloete, Ian Bunting, 2018-11-09 From the early 2000s a new discourse emerged in Africa and the international donor community that higher education was important for development in Africa Within this zeitgeist of converging interests a range of agencies agreed that a different collaborative approach to linking higher education to development was necessary This led to the establishment of the Higher Education Research and Advocacy Network in Africa Herana to concentrate on research and advocacy about the possible role and contribution of universities to development in Africa This book is the final publication to emerge from the Herana project The project has also published more than 100 articles chapters reports manuals and datasets and many presentations have been delivered to share insights gained from the work done by Herana Given its prolific dissemination it seems reasonable to ask whether this fourth and final publication will offer the reader anything new This book is certainly different from previous publications in several respects First it is the only book to include an analysis of eight African universities based on the full 15 years of empirical data collected by the project Second previous books and reports were published mid project This book has benefited from an extended gestation period allowing the authors and contributors to reflect on the project without the distractions associated with managing and participating in a large scale project For the first time some of those who have been involved in Herana since its inception have had the opportunity to at least make an attempt to see part of the wood for the trees Different does not necessarily mean new An emphasis on the newness of the data and perspectives presented in this book is important because it shows that it is more than a historical record of a donor funded project Rather each chapter in this book brings to a lesser or greater extent something new to our understanding of universities research and development in Africa

Uganda Jörg Wiegratz, Giuliano Martiniello, Elisa Greco, 2018-11-15 For the last three decades Uganda has been one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Globally praised as an African success story and heavily backed by international financial institutions development agencies and bilateral donors the country has become an exemplar of economic and political reform for those who espouse a neoliberal model of development The neoliberal policies and the resulting restructuring of the country have been accompanied by narratives of progress prosperity and modernisation and justified in the name of development But this self celebratory narrative which is critiqued by many in Uganda masks the disruptive social impact of these reforms and silences the complex and persistent crises resulting from neoliberal transformation Bringing together a range of leading scholars on the country this collection represents a timely contribution to the debate around the New Uganda one which confronts the often sanitised and largely depoliticised accounts of the Museveni government and its proponents Harnessing a wealth of empirical materials the contributors offer a critical multi disciplinary analysis of the unprecedented political socio economic cultural and ecological transformations brought about by neoliberal capitalist restructuring since the 1980s The result is the most comprehensive collective study to date of a neoliberal market society in contemporary Africa offering crucial insights for other countries in the Global South

Protection, Patronage, or Plunder? British Machinations and (B)uganda's Struggle for Independence Apollo N. Makubuya, 2019-01-17 In the scramble for Africa Britain took a lion's share of the continent It occupied and controlled vast territories including the Uganda Protectorate which it ruled for 68 years Early administrators in the region encountered the progressive kingdom of Buganda which they incorporated into the British Empire Under the guise of protection indirect rule and patronage Britain overran plundered and disempowered the kingdom's traditional institutions On liquidation of the Empire Buganda was coaxed into a problematic political order largely dictated from London Today 56 years after independence the kingdom struggles to rediscover itself within Uganda's fragile politics Based on newly declassified records this book reconstructs a history of the machinations underpinning British imperial interests in B Uganda and the personalities who embodied colonial rule It addresses Anglo Uganda relations demonstrating how Uganda's politics reflects its colonial past and the forces shaping its future It is a far reaching examination of British rule in B Uganda questioning whether it was designed for protection for patronage or for plunder
