Dear Lyda Fadel,

On behalf of the entire board and community, I would like to extend a warm welcome to you as a new member of our organization, [YOUR COMPANY NAME]. We are thrilled to have you join us as we work together to make a positive impact in our community.

As you step into your role, I encourage you to embrace the mission and vision of our organization. Your unique experiences and perspectives will contribute greatly to our collective efforts. In the coming months, we will be focusing on several key initiatives, including [insert specific initiatives or goals relevant to your organization], and your input will be invaluable as we move forward.

To help you get acclimated, we have prepared several resources that you will find helpful:

- Board Orientation: We will be hosting an orientation session on January 15, 2050, where you will learn more about our operations, governance structure, and the community we serve. This will also be a great opportunity to meet other board members and key staff.
- Board Handbook: Enclosed with this letter is our board handbook, which provides essential information about your responsibilities, our policies, and the organizational structure.
- Communication: Should you have any questions or need assistance, please don't hesitate to reach out to me directly at [YOUR EMAIL]. I am here to support you in any way I can.

As we embark on this journey together, I encourage you to share your ideas and engage actively in our discussions. Your passion and commitment will be instrumental in helping us achieve our goals.

Once again, welcome to [YOUR COMPANY NAME]. We look forward to collaborating with you to make a meaningful difference in our community!

Warm regards,

[YOUR NAME]

The Library Friends and Foundations Handbook is a must have resource for members of Friends groups, Foundations, library staff members, administrators and others who wish to begin or enhance such support group partnerships. Its background details build a knowledge base of what such groups are all about and its helpful recommendations can be put into practice as it focuses upon the history of such groups and how their contributions matter to the vitality of library institutions of all kinds: public, school, state, college, university and special. Describes the various kinds of Friends and Foundation groups, sometimes combined, how they are organized and run and ways they partner with the libraries they support so that readers may consider how they too might design and form or augment their own groups. Carefully explains how groups can effectively market their membership options and purposes to their communities. Gives practical advice on recruiting volunteers of all ages and providing training for them to beneficially aid their libraries both financially and with hands on assistance. Describes ways library support groups can advocate for their libraries. Presents a wide variety of fundraising and donation ideas, procedures and examples that readers can emulate reflecting current trends such as online book sales, grab bag book sales, gala events and securing grants along with equitable methods of monetary distribution. Offers a selected bibliography, a webliography and an appendix with sample documents. The book covers the history of such groups, how their contributions matter to the vitality of libraries and library institutions of all kinds: public, school, state, college, university and special. It describes the various kinds of Friends and Foundation groups, how they are organized and run, ways they partner with the libraries they support, how they can effectively market their membership options and purposes to the community to which they are dedicated and ways to advocate for their libraries. It explains how volunteers of all ages, yes including teenagers, are recruited, trained and used successfully to aid their libraries both financially and with hands on assistance. A wide variety of fundraising and donation ideas, procedures and examples are featured that reflect current trends in such activities as online and grab bag book sales, gala events, securing grants and methods of monetary distribution.
