Rendezvous With Art:

Rendez-vous with Art Philippe de Montebello, Martin Gayford, 2014-09-05 The fruits of a lifetime of experience by a cultural colossus Philippe de Montebello the longest serving director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in its history distilled in conversations with an acclaimed critic Beginning with a fragment of yellow jasper all that is left of the face of an Egyptian woman who lived 3 500 years ago this book confronts the elusive questions how and why do we look at art Philippe de Montebello and Martin Gayford talked in art galleries or churches or their own homes and this book is structured around their journeys But whether they were in the Louvre or the Prado the Mauritshuis of the Palazzo Pitti they reveal the pleasures of truly looking De Montebello shares the sense of excitement recorded by Goethe in his autobiography akin to the emotion experienced on entering a House of God but also reflects on why these secular temples might nevertheless be the worst possible places to look at art But in the end both men convey with subtlety and brilliance the delights and significance of their subject matter and some of the intense creations of human beings throughout our long history Keeping a Rendezvous John Berger, 2011-07-13 When he stands before Giorgione's La Tempesta Booker Prize winning author John Berger sees not only the painting but our whole notion of time sweeping us away from a lost Eden A photograph of a gravely joyful crowd gathered on a Prague street in November 1989 provokes reflection on the meaning of democracy and the reunion of a people with long banished hopes and dreams With the luminous essays in Keeping a Rendezvous we are given to see the world as Berger sees it to explore themes suggested by the work of Jackson Pollock or J M W Turner to contemplate the wonder of Paris Rendezvous are manifold between critic and art artist and subject subject and the unknown But most significant are the rendezvous between author and reader as we discover our perceptions informed by Berger's eloquence and courageous moral imagination Rendezvous Joshua Hoering, 2015-03-26 Art is like poetry It seeps in slowly connecting us to bigger ideas and the unknown pushing us into a space of contemplation and imagination This space is the place where artists thrive a place all art students can discover This book contains poems and illustrations created by students at Noble Street College Prep where students focused on their perspectives and experiences of their home Chicago Art rendez-vous Architecture § Episode 6 Alexander Pilis, ARCHITECTURE rendez-vous ART %0Ûç Episode 2 Alexander Pilis, 2015-06-09 Art and Architecture are multi faceted with knowledge that reflects upon themselves The intention for this course is to investigate the dialectical relationship between these two disciplines through their theory and practice context and materiality form and representation culture and territory and to explore both languages as critical practices The seminars will provide an informed introduction to the basic approaches to the relationship of two distinct languages that historically have engaged themselves and reflected social shifts The students will examine learn discuss and represent possible strategies that art and architecture have created in cultural context with knowledge Through discursive dialogue the seminars will provide fundamental concepts of the theoretical vs built production the public vs the private politics to poetics from mechanical to digital through an informed perspective of art in architecture within public and private spaces from 1914 to now with historical precedents Preacher William W.
