The Almanac of American Education 2014-2015 Deirdre A. Gaquin, Gwenavere W. Dunn, 2015-03-04 The Almanac of American Education helps users understand and compare the quality of education at the national state and county levels Compiled from official U S government and reliable private sources the book contains historical and current data insightful analysis and useful graphs that provide compelling insights into the state of education in America The Insider's Guide to the Colleges, 2014 Yale Daily News Staff, 2013-07-09 Students on campus tell you what you really want to know Cover

God's Word, Your World! 2013-2014 , 2013-07-01 An Answer to Disenfranchised Students Sharon D. Jones Deloach, 2016-09-01 Many school districts across this great nation are facing serious patterns of underachievement of students who do not fit well in a mainstream educational environment The purpose of this qualitative phenomenological research study was to explore the perceptions and experiences of graduates from a credit recovery nontraditional alternative high school that influenced his or her graduation Nationally many high school students are not earning sufficient credits to remain on grade level with their freshman level cohort These at risk students need options with stronger incentives to obtain high school credits and meet graduation requirements Credit recovery nontraditional alternative high schools involve an at risk student population who are at a greater risk of academic social and emotional struggles These students benefit from additional support that a nontraditional setting offers This study involved interviewing 12 high school graduates who attended and graduated from a credit recovery nontraditional alternative high school There was a diversified group by age and other demographics representing five graduating classes With this research study the investigator determined graduates perceptions of credit recovery in their nontraditional alternative high school were overwhelmingly positive The lived experiences explored in this study may help school leaders policy makers teachers staff parents and community partners understand the unique needs of this population Report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction Kansas.

Department of Education, 1914 College Disrupted Ryan Craig, 2025-09-23 For nearly two decades pundits have been predicting the demise of higher education in the United States Our colleges and universities will soon find themselves competing for students with universities from around the world With the advent of massive open online courses MOOCs over the past two years predictions that higher education will be the next industry to undergo disruption have become more frequent and fervent Currently a university's reputation relies heavily on the four Rs in which the most elite schools thrive rankings research real estate and rah i e sports But for the majority of students who are not attending these elite institutions the four Rs offer poor value for the expense of a college education Craig sees the future of higher education in online degrees that unbundle course offerings to offer a true bottom line return for the majority of students in terms of graduation employment and wages College Disrupted details the changes that American higher education will undergo including the transformation from packaged courses and degrees to truly unbundled course offerings along with those that it will not

Written by a professional at the only investment firm focused on the higher education market College Disrupted takes a creative view of the forces roiling higher education and the likely outcome including light hearted real life anecdotes that illustrate the author s points The Handbook of Secondary Gifted Education Felicia A. Dixon,Sidney M. Moon,2021-09-03

The second edition of this groundbreaking textbook is designed to help education professionals interested in building effective and comprehensive educational opportunities for gifted secondary students The Handbook of Secondary Gifted Education offers an in depth research based look at ways schools and classrooms can support the development of gifted adolescents The book is the most comprehensive critical resource on this topic available Each chapter of this educational resource is written by leading scholars and researchers in the field The second edition includes sections on STEM CCSS alignment and 21st century skills along with discussion of working with secondary students in various content areas The purpose of the book is to provide a research based handbook that views gifted adolescents and their needs as the starting point for building an effective integrated educational program Reengagement Andrew O. Moore,2016-04-19 This book by practitioners policy analysts and young people for practitioners policy makers and researchers captures up to the moment experience and as yet unresolved issues in a newly emerging field dropout reengagement Key elements in this field include reaching out to young people who have left school for a myriad of reasons and providing individualized supports and services all the way through to successful re enrollment The development of coordinated citywide efforts to re engage out of school youth on positive educational pathways in several dozen cities in recent years spurred the effort to document practice and policy Readers will come away with an understanding of results to date as well as a sense of the variety and continuous improvement and innovation underway This book describes the impressive early accomplishments of reengagement efforts in several cities provides practical advice from a variety of perspectives for those seeking to launch or formalize local reengagement programs and describes how reengagement at scale could help solve the crisis of unfulfilled potential represented in America s millions of young people without high school credentials Case Study of Targeted Poverty Alleviation in 100 Villages in China Peilin Li,Yuan Ma,Houkai Wei,Guangjin Chen,2023-10-29 This book is the general report of the targeted poverty alleviation and elimination project of 100 villages presenting the overall progress of poverty alleviation and development of all sample villages in the tide of poverty alleviation From 2016 to 2018 the project selected 104 poor villages including those out of poverty across the country to carry out national research and recorded the great changes in more than 100 poor villages in recent years with steps nib and lens Based on questionnaire survey data and data from village research reports the book describes the basic village situation poverty situation village level poverty management and assistance measures causes of poverty and assistance measures progress and results of targeted poverty alleviation in 100 poor villages across China since 2016 Access for All Melisa N. Choroszy,Theodor M. Meek,2019-01-23 For many students in Nevada and throughout the nation they are the first in their family to go to college these students are identified as first generation The population of first generation students continues to increase year over year and their unique needs have shaped the way education practitioners must approach serving future students effectively This collection of essays written by University of Nevada Reno UNR faculty and students is an examination of the programs and strategies created to support first generation and other underrepresented student populations In addition it serves as a dedication to the families and students whose hopes and dreams include the attainment of a college degree Readers will gain insight into the framework needed to provide accessible programs and services to a large and diverse student population before during and after college graduation as well as first hand success stories from the students themselves Each generation hopes for a better life for their children Higher education in particular has been a dream for many in this country that has been made possible through public and private financial support Every new generation of college bound students faces new and evolving challenges but the fierce dedication and commitment demonstrated in these pages define the key to developing a thriving and diverse institution that helps all students succeed

A New Deal for Old Age Anne L. Alstott, 2016-03-08 Changes in longevity marriage and the workplace have undermined Social Security making the experience of old age increasingly unequal Anne Alstott's pragmatic progressive revision would permit all Americans to retire between 62 and 76 but would provide generous early retirement benefits for workers with low wages or physically demanding jobs

Juvenile Delinquency Christopher A. Mallett, Miyuki Fukushima Tedor, 2018-07-13 Juvenile Delinquency Pathways and Prevention explores the pivotal roles that family trauma mental health and schools have on juvenile delinquency while exploring opportunities for prevention and intervention Authors Christopher A Mallett and Miyuki Fukushima Tedor draw from years of experience working with juvenile offenders to shed light on the nature of delinquency and the diverse pathways to juvenile delinquency while offering evidence based techniques for preventing and rehabilitating youthful offenders Clear explanations of the concepts and thought provoking case studies move students beyond memorization encouraging them to think critically about juvenile delinquency and make recommendations for better practices and policies

Success for All Melisa N. Choroszy, Theodor M. Meek, 2020-04-15 While the most important measure of success for many degree seeking students is the timely attainment of a Bachelor's degree there remains a host of other indicators of student success that vary by student population and students personal goals Many of these smaller successes lead to the ultimate goal of graduation and are significant triumphs throughout the journey through higher education Success for All is a strategic guide for administrators and educators that offers methods for advising students through the myriad of challenges they face Every bit of success contributes to the accomplishment of a larger goal and this book highlights success at every level It provides a specific roadmap to the research services and programs at the University of Nevada Reno and Truckee Meadows Community College that support student success in undergraduate and graduate programs regardless of a student's social emotional or prior academic experiences Contributors discuss how to make students feel welcome in their social and educational environments and how to directly assist them with the timely completion of their degree Administrators and educators demonstrate how these programs help make a positive contribution to the students and the institutions they serve while implementing practical solutions to increase graduation rates

The Best American Sports Writing 2014 Christopher McDougall, 2014

The Best American Sports Writing gathers the very best from sports journalists from the past year A stronger nation through higher education Dewayne Matthews, 2014

As Lumina Foundation releases a new edition of the signature report A Stronger Nation Through Higher Education the central message is the same one conveyed since the first of this series of reports in 2009 Lumina remains convinced that significantly increasing college attainment is the key to ensuring a brighter future for our nation and its citizens By the year 2025 Lumina's goal is to see 60 per cent of Americans holding a college degree certificate or other high quality postsecondary credential This fifth edition of Stronger Nation much like earlier editions is designed to track progress toward that vital goal from a national perspective in the nation's largest metro areas in each of the 50 states even down to the county level This 2014 edition reports what appears to be modest progress in most areas Beyond the numbers Lumina sees even more encouraging signs unmistakable signals that the need and the hunger for higher education is stronger than ever
