The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1877 Franz Fühmann, Innovation and Authenticity Dennis Tate, 1995 This is the first full length study of the life and works of Franz Fühmann 1922-1984 to be published in English It provides a complete reassessment of his importance as a prose writer informed by the extensive corpus of Fühmann's writing which has only appeared posthumously or is now accessible in the archives of the Akademie der Künste in East Berlin Dennis Tate argues that from the middle 1950s onwards Fühmann's prose writing is both stylistically innovative and committed to the authentic representation of his experience thereby challenging the conventional wisdom that little writing of international significance could be produced in the ideological context of the GDR until Honecker introduced his no taboos cultural policy in 1971 Fühmann's widely praised later texts ranging from the autobiographical Zweiundzwanzig Tage oder Die Hölle des Lebens and Vor Feuerschindeln to mythical and satirical short stories such as Marsyas and Drei nackte Männer can now be seen as the culmination of an impressive creative development rather than as the result of a late conversion to literary truthfulness The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of post 1945 German literature as well as to general readers aware of the vitality of Central European culture throughout the period of East West ideological division
